County Plans Hospital Bonds, Low-Rent Vote

Election Set June 27; Auditor Fighting Plan

By RANDALL GOULD

Two 3-2 votes of the Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday set the stage for a June 27 special election combining two issues:

1. Federal construction of up to 300 low-rent homes in Marin County, primarily in expectation that 35 to 50 in Lucas Valley would ease pressure on county hospital facilities.

2. Another county hospital bond proposal, for a one million dollar issue — half the amount Supervisor chairman William D. Fusselman wanted and comparing with two and one-quarter million dollar proposals twice turned down by Marin voters last year.

Supervisors Walter R. Castro and William Gnoss opposed the federal housing idea, then voted against the bond proposal because it was tied to the housing.

Auditor-Controller Leon A. deLisle today indicated that he means to raise the point that there's no such money available as will be required for the election and that to appropriate it will require a four-fifths rather than 3-2 majority.

As preliminary to the deLisle move, Asst. Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell served notice yesterday that under order of deLisle he was asking Clerk George S. Jones to get up a prompt estimate on cost. Recent guesses have been $35,000 to $40,000.

DeLisle's position was summed up as, "No election shall be implemented until the funds for it are on hand."

SEE FRUSTRATION

But both Fusselman and Jones indicated they felt there were strategies through which this counter-move could be frustrated.

Fusselman had asked County Counsel E. Warren McGuire to prepare a draft resolution on the housing proposal.

"We're planning an election for low-income-group housing," he said when McGuire appeared yesterday. "At the same time we could hold another bond election for the hospital. True, it has been defeated, but the attitude of the public of necessity changes.

"So I asked McGuire to prepare a resolution for bond election leaving the amount blank. I'd say not to exceed two million dollars.

"If we find before June 27 that we don't want a bond election, we can drop it."

DISCUSSION FOLLOWS

There was considerable discussion. Then Supervisor Walter R. Castro pointed out that the board was expecting a report from the Marin County Medical Society.

Fusselman said Dr. Calvin Plumhof had to await approval from the society's board of directors last night before presenting it. "Meanwhile we must act now to get the election before the fiscal year is over," he said.

"I'm for cheap housing for senior citizens," said Castro, "but there are two things before us. The requirement is for beds. I'd go for a hospital election with nothing else on the ballot."

Fusstlman said the part of the housing proposal applicable to hospital was the possibility

Crush Rebels By Any Means Says De Gaulle

Kennedy Offers Help From U.S.; Invasion Rumors

PARIS (UPI)— President Charles de Gaulle issued an "order of the day" tonight ordering loyal French troops to liquidate the Algerian rebellion with all possible means — including force of arms if necessary.

De Gaulle told his soldiers, sailors and airmen to first halt the insurrection, then break it, and finally stamp out all traces of it.

His order came as mutinous paratroopers withdrew suddenly from two of Algeria's three cities. French government sources warned their redeployment could be a prelude to an invasion attempt against France itself.

U. S. ASSISTANCE

(In Washington President John F. Kennedy told French president Charles de Gaulle that the United States stood ready to provide any assistance which he deemed advisable or necessary in the current Algerian crisis, the White House said today.

(The White House added, however, that there had been no request or indication from de Gaulle that he might require help.)

In Paris, it was announced that a light cruiser standing off the base near the rebel stronghold of Oran fired the first salvoes in France's plunge towards Civil War.

FLEET SAILS

The navy ministry announced that the Mediterranean squadron of the French fleet sailed from Toulon this afternoon. There were no details of strength or destination, but the fleet units obviously were heading for Algeria.

Premier Michel Debre disclosed the attempt on Mers El Kebir in a brief announcement to parliament.

He spoke as de Gaulle summoned home French NATO troops in Germany, continued to call up more reservists and tightened an all-out economic blockade on Algeria.

President Takes Blame For Cuba

COMBINED AP & UPI

WASHINGTON — President John F. Kennedy has again made it clear that he takes full responsibility for whatever part the United States played in the ill-starred Cuban invasion.

The White House issued a statement last Monday night which said:

"President Kennedy has stated from the beginning that as president he bears sole responsibility for the events of the past few days. He has stated it on all occasions and he restated it now so that it will be understood by all.

"The President is strongly opposed to anyone within or without the administration attempting to shift the responsibility."

There was no elaboration to the White House statement but it apparently was prompted by sharp Republican reaction to a remark by Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall tying in former President Dwight D. Eisenhower with early plannings of last week's rebel landings in Cuba.

With his statement reaffirming his responsibility, Kennedy sought to stamp out any party row over the Cuban invasion and its failure.

The statement came after Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois protested a remark by Udall that the invasion had been conceived during the Eisenhower administration.

In other developments on the Cuban scene:

1. Kennedy briefed Democratic congressional leaders on the Havana situation as well as those of France and Laos.

2. The president planned to hold a discussion with New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller this afternoon.

3. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson flew to Kansas City to brief President Harry S. Truman on the U.S.-sanctioned rebel invasion.

4. Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon's view that the U.S. must develop guerilla-type forces to meet Red subversion in Cuba and elsewhere was sharply criticized by Democrats.

Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.), chairman of the senate subcommittee on Latin America, was as critical of Nixon as he was of the Kennedy administration for aiding the ill-fated Cuban rebel invasion.

"Mr. Nixon's proposal would bog us down in brushfire wars for years. I am satisfied the American people will see the implications of this and reject it," Morse said.

Russ Pouring Tons Of Goods Into Havana

MIAMI (UPI)—The Russians poured thousands of tons of goods into Cuba today to meet growing shortages.

An official broadcast monitored in Miami said at least three communist shipments to their Cuban allies have reached Havana docks in the past 24 hours.

(At the same time in Washington the White House said it has been considering clamping a total embargo on U. S. trade with Cuba.

(No decision has been reached yet on whether to go ahead with the plan. But Press Secretary Pierre Salinger said failure of the anti-Castro revolt last week has sharpened consideration of the proposal.

(He said such an embargo on shipments to and from Cuba has been under consideration for some time.

(The embargo would hit the Cuban tobacco trade, which has been continuing at an annual rate of about 70 million dollars a year despite the increasing deterioration of U. S.-Cuban relations. The United States cut off the Cuban sugar trade last year.

In the broadcast monitored at Miami no war materiel was mentioned — presumably any mention of such would be censored—but the broadcast referred to oil, trucks, tractors, jeeps and "industrial equipment" among the items received in quantity from Russia.

McCarthy Bid On Transit Bonds Rejected

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Legislative attempts to better the chances of securing financial support for the San Francisco Bay Area's proposed Rapid Transit System, were rebuffed today by the Senate Transportation Committee.

In a split voice vote, the committee rejected a bill by Sen. John F. McCarthy of San Rafael which would have lowered the majority of favorable votes needed for approval of transit bond issues from 66⅔ to 60 per cent.

BANK SPEAKER

The vote came after vice president Alan K. Browne of the Bank of America warned that he had "a very strong conviction" the action would result in voter rejection of a proposed bond issue.

Under a McCarthy bill which was approved by the committee the bond issue—expected to total more than $1,000,000,000 dollars—would go before Bay Area voters in 1962.

FINANCE PLAN

Originally set to be submitted in 1960, it would finance a Rapid Transit District including the counties of San Francisco, Alameda, San Mateo, Contra Costa and Marin.

The money would finance construction of a tube under San Francisco Bay—the early phases of which are being financed through loans from Bay Bridge toll collections and other facilities linking the five counties.

Told U.S. Can Expect Unpopular Votes In U.N. In Immediate Future

By CHAPIN A. DAY

WASHINGTON — The American people must expect unpopular actions in the United Nations in the immediate future, the nation's newsmen were told yesterday. But the real key to peace is how far the men in the Kremlin will sacrifice the Soviet Union to promote world communism.

These opinions were voiced by top governmental officials to some 400 editors gathered at the state department's foreign policy briefing conference. (Because the sessions were informal and for "background" purposes only, the statements of the speakers can be quoted only without attribution or identification of their agencies)

MERGING NATIONS

The people must realize that the merging nations, the Afro-Asians, now have an absolute majority in the United Nations, one top official declared. As a result, we will have to weather some bad times.

The new African countries are just-created states, they are not democracies and have little interest immediately in becoming democracies. They are not even interested in individual liberties on a mass basis.

They are interested fundamentally in the independence of their continent, which has been under colonial rule for so long; in their own leadership, and in development of their countries.

SKEPTIAL LOOK

They look with skepticism on the big powers. The Cuban situation, for example, was a battle to them between two great powers. They see it very simply: The Soviets won; the United States lost.

They believe that regional organizations, such as the Organization of American States, are big-power controlled. As a result, they tend to world-wide organization rather than regional.

But their votes in the United Nations are unpredictable and fashioned broadly by internal political considerations.

Assembly Vote Rejects Death Penalty Ban

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Opponents of capital punishment failed on their first try in the Assembly today to win passage of a bill calling for a four-year moratorium. (See also story page 3).

The bill lost, 37-41, on the initial vote. The roll call was kept open in an attempt by proponents of the measure to switch votes.

The vote followed long debate that paraded the old arguments: the death penalty is and it isn't a deterrent.

Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan, (D-Los Angeles), author of the moratorium bill, cried out that the only reason for putting criminals to death is vengeance.

"And vengeance," he said, "is unworthy of such a great and civilized state as California."

Santa Venetia House Slips; Workman Hurt

One workman was painfully injured and three others narrowly escaped yesterday when a two-bedroom house slipped from its jacks as it was being raised in Santa Venetia.

The four, employed by Howard A. Shoemaker, Petaluma house mover, were raising the home of Robert Ogden at 120 Mabry Way to a 10-foot height to make it the second story of a planned two-story dwelling.

From a height of about six feet, the house suddenly slipped. The attached garage splintered off. The rest came straight down in a crash of timbers.

The foreman, Parker L. Arritt of Petaluma, was struck by the collapsing cribbing at the rear of the house. The other three workmen were nicked by flying boards, but not hurt seriously enough to require medical attention.

State Supreme Court Rejects Robillard Plea

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The California supreme court today turned down the appeal of Alexander Robillard, 20, a little less than 24 hours before his scheduled execution in the San Quentin gas chamber for murdering a policeman.

It was the youth's third appeal to the high court. The court acted after considering his petition for an hour and a quarter.

His attorneys were expected to carry their case now to the federal courts in an effort to win a stay of execution.

The latest petition, presented by Atty. Vincent Hallinan of Ross, asked that Robillard's conviction be set aside and that he be permitted to enter a new plea of innocent.

Robillard asserted that his trial was practiced "fraud and misrepresentation" upon him. He said in an affidavit that the lawyers assured him that he could only be convicted of second degree murder if he pleaded guilty.

This advice was restated in open court, Robillard said, in the presence of the district attorney and the judge, but they did not contradict it.

Today's appeal was the last in a series of appeals to various courts in recent days. The same arguments presented today were turned down yesterday in San Mateo County superior court.

MOUNTAIN LION TURNS OUT TO BE PET OCELOT

A "mountain lion" in San Rafael turned out to be a pet ocelot.

When Daniel Nunan of 5 Nunan Drive, started his car this morning a big cat jumped out from beneath it. He phoned San Rafael police, who in turn called the Marin County Humane Society.

Irvin Sousa of the humane society captured the animal with a "dog stick." He learned that it belonged to Mr. and Mrs. William Deacon of 145 Rafael Drive.

The Deacons said "Oscar," pet ocelot wandered off last night.

Both Sides Held Accepting Plea For Laos Cease-Fire

COMBINED AP & UPI

Both sides in the war in Laos today were reported as accepting the British-Soviet appeal for a cease fire.

The British Foreign Office announced that the royal Laotian government formally accepted the call for a cease fire.

In Moscow, the official Soviet news agency Tass reported that the Communist-backed Pathet Lao also agreed to stop the fighting immediately.

Tass said Prince Souphanouvong, the so-called Red prince who is political leader of the Pathet Lao rebels, "will order (his) armed forces to cease fire throughout the country."

The agency said Souphanouvong "warmly acclaims" the cease fire appeal and the call for a 14-nation conference to work out the future of Laos.

British officials expressed hope that the cease fire would be put into effect within the next few days.

A broadcast in Peiping said the neutralist ex-premier, stopping over in Communist North Viet Nam after a visit to Moscow and Peiping, called for a peace meeting of all factions Saturday.

CONFERENCE

Britain and the Soviet Union were sending out invitations for a 14-nation conference to work out arrangements for a neutral, independent Laos. The invitations said the conference would open May 12 in Geneva.

The Laotian government announced its commander in chief is "ready to establish contact at any moment with the responsible head of the opposing forces" to fix the "day and hour of an effective cease-fire."

U.S. STAND

The three-nation control commission-India, Canada and Poland—which will supervise the truce, is scheduled to hold its first meeting in New Delhi-India, on Friday. The United States has served notice that it will not attend the Geneva conference until a truce is in effect and has been verified.

The U.S. found a gap showed in the text of the cease-fire proposal as published last night. The plan set no specific date for a halt to the fighting, beyond saying it should stop before the Geneva parley begins.

Bishop Pike Rips U.S. For Hungary, Cuba

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike of San Francisco says the United States was guilty of bumbling and fumbling in Hungary, Cuba and concerning the U-2 spy flight.

Speaking to the Los Angeles World Affairs Council yesterday, he questioned whether America is completely innocent of some of the delinquencies of which it accuses the Communists.

Bishop Pike analyzed the American Cuban attitude as being first to deny any connection with the attempted invasion "and now investigating to see why we didn't do better."

This, he said, followed the same pattern of the U-2 incident, and the policy of inciting the people of Hungary to fight for freedom, then doing nothing.

Former G.E. Chief Tied To Price Fixing

WASHINGTON (AP)—A former General Electric Co. executive testified today he was told in 1957 that Robert Paxton, then G.E. president, gave instructions that led to price fixing agreements with competitors.

The testimony was given by Clarence E. Burke of Villanova, Pa., who pleaded guilty earlier this year to government charges of price-fixing. He was fined $3,500 and given a one-month suspended jail sentence.

Burke was the first of the defendants in the price fixing and bid-rigging conspiracy case to be called before the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee.

In general, Burke's testimony was that "we always got these instructions to contact competitors through the line of command." They were told also, he said, to keep their price-fixing activities secret from the company's lawyers.

Gasoline Tax Will Probably Stay 4 Cents

WASHINGTON (AP)—The federal tax on your gasoline will continue at four cents a gallon if Congress follows the lead of the House Ways and Means Committee.

And Congress usually does.

The committee yesterday approved a compromise bill to send an additional 900 million dollars a year into the fund which finances the pay-as-you-go federal super highway program.

Without such a boost, Congress was told, the program might stretch out as much as five years beyond 1972, when the 41,000-mile network of super highways is scheduled to be finished.

Beside extending the one-cent "temporary" part of the gasoline tax scheduled to expire July 1, the tax-writing committee approved a series of tax increases on truck operations and voted to divert from the general fund to the highway fund the proceeds of half the excise tax on trucks and buses.

At present the two funds divide the 10 per cent tax. Under the committee plan the highway fund would get it all. Passenger automobile excises would not be affected.

Soviet Spaceship

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet scientists test-fired the spaceship Vostok into orbit around the earth twice before it carried Maj. Yuri Gagarin on his historic flight, the government newspaper Izvestia said yesterday.

The newspaper said the tests were conducted in March. The Vostok carried two dogs named Chernushka (Little Star) and Zvezdochka (Blacky) and a dummy, Izvestia said. The spaceship returned to earth both times "intact," it added.

Russ Attacks Dag

UNITED NATIONS (AP) — Soviet delegates yesterday renewed attacks on Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold in the U.N. Economic and Social Council and its committees.

Soviet delegate E. N. Makeez refused to vote for a program of listing national parks and reserves throughout the world because Hammarskjold was supposed to draw it up.

The council, however, approved the program, 15-0.

In the council's social committee, which reviewed reports on its long-term project on freedom of information, Soviet delegate V. I. Saphozhnikov attacked a U.S.-French draft resolution because it called on Hammarskjold to circulate the reports to members.

Twisters Hit Midwest

By UP INTERNATIONAL

Tornadoes and lashing rains blacked out farm belt towns and sent flood waters swirling through city suburban streets in the Middle West today.

The tornado-hit towns of Winchester, Ill., and Jasper, Kan., were without power. Four persons were injured by the Winchester twister and the Jasper power station was smashed.

Elsewhere in the Midwest storm belt, flooded roads slowed rush hour traffic in the Detroit area. Heavy rains pushed rivers out of their banks in Indiana and Buffalo, N.Y., recorded the wettest April in its history.

Last Rites Set

SAN BERNARDINO (UPI) — Funeral services have been set Thursday for Mrs. Virgil Pinkley Sr., 81, mother of newspaper publisher Virgil Pinkley.

Mrs. Pinkley is survived by three sons and a daughter. Her son Virgil is publisher and president of the Associated Desert Newspapers and the Orange (Calif.) Daily News.

Folsom's Muslims

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The State Supreme Court yesterday unanimously turned down a petition by 10 convict members of the black supremacy Muslim sect that they be given an opportunity to practice their religion in prison.

The 10 are in Folsom Prison, scene of earlier rioting by members of the Muslim sect for what they called equal treatment with white prisoners.

Berserk Elephant

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP)—An elephant suddenly went berserk yesterday and trampled to death an elderly man and injured its trainer as hundreds of bystanders stood by helpless.

The 40-year-old elephant, Henrietta, spent the morning pulling children in a wagon around a shopping center parking lot. At the time of the accident she was tethered near a truck.

James John Orr, 67, walked around the elephant, and the animal suddenly swung at him. Orr started to run. The elephant knocked him down.

Stanford Grant

STANFORD (AP)—A National Science Foundation grant of $462,945 will enable Stanford University to convert the largest private sailing vessel under American registry to the world's largest scientific sailing craft.

The Pioneer will make four voyages annually carrying up to 35 graduate students.

Built in Germany in 1927 for $1.4 million, the ship has been laid up at Newport Beach since 1951. Conversion will take six months.

X-15 Slows Down

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The X-15 rocket plane's official speed record has been reduced to 3,074 mph.

The rocket plane's peak speed in last Friday's research run was initially given as 3,140 but detailed analysis of radar tracking data reduced it by 66 mph.

Even so the X-15 topped its former world mark for controlled craft by 169 mph. The plane is designed for an ultimate speed of 4,000 mph. and an altitude of more than 50 miles.

Congo Dispute

COQUILHATVILLE, the Congo (AP) — President Moise Tshombe of Katanga walked out on the rest of the Congo's anti-Communist political leaders today after accusing President Joseph Kasavubu of the Leopoldville central government of selling out the Congolese people to the United Nations.

With sarcastic and stinging insults, Tshombe refused further co-operation and discussion with the central government unless Kasavubu denounced the accord he recently concluded with the U.N. Command, an accord Tshombe said "humiliated all the people of the Congo."

Tshombe's walkout ended —at least temporarily — hopes for the confederation of Congolese states which all factions except Antoine Gizenga's Stanleyville regime agreed on in principle last month.

Voice From The Grave Calls Eichmann 'Coward'

JERUSALEM (UPI)—The words of a dead man accused Adolf Eichmann today of being a "coward"—fanatic in his desire to kill Jews but so spineless that he never took action without getting confirmation from his superior officers.

Eichmann hit back at the charge with a document.

It was his own life story written after he had been kidnaped in Argentina and brought to Israel for trial on charges of exterminating six million European Jews. He said that after the war his world of Nazi order and rules collapsed around him. He fell into a high fever and got religion. The "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" were riding through his brain, he said. Eichmann's memoirs were placed in the court record here as an exhibit.

The accusation from the grave came from a former friend and comrade in arms in Adolf Hitler's SS elite corps—Dieter Wisliceny. He was hanged as a war criminal in 1947 and made his statement against Eichmann on the promise that his family would be protected.

". . . He is a coward who never did anything without written confirmation from above," Wisliceny wrote. "He was not immoral, because he was completely devoid of morality. He was adamant with regard to the Jews. He said: "I will jump into my grave laughing because the fact that I have five million Jews on my conscience gives me extraordinary satisfaction'."

Eichmann listened to the words of his former friend impassively. The small table in his bullet-proof glass box was stacked with documents from which orange index slips protruded.

Robert Servatius, Eichmann's counsel, said yesterday that his client was spending long hours in his cell helping with the defense and that his contributions were valuable.

Eichmann's memoirs reviewed much familiar information, but he wrote a nine-page prologue in which he engaged in a sort of "true confession" hour. He said that from childhood he had been a slave to authority.

"I recognize my father as the absolute authority as well as my mother who unhappily died young," he wrote. "I recognized my teachers and my superiors in my job as authority and in the same way later my military superiors. I could have well agreed that the famous camel could pass through the eye of the needle but not that I should fail to obey orders."

Cuba Parades Captured Rebels On TV

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Invaders reportedly captured by Fidel Castro's troops demanded death, showed indifference or begged for mercy in a television show from Cuba today.

A priest, a man who claimed he won the U.S. Medal of Honor and a pro-Castro police corporal accused of brutalities were among the captives interrogated in a running propaganda series aimed at convincing the Cuban people that the United States engineered the ill-fated invasion.

The prisoners, who indicated they were aware of the firing squad threat pronounced by Castro, agreed with interrogators that they were duped into thinking the Cuban people would join their cause.

A man who claimed to be Manuel Perez Garcia and claimed he killed 83 Japanese and won the Medal of Honor in World War II, jumped up and shouted: "If this nation loves Fidel Castro, let it shoot me."

In Washington, the Pentagon said Manuel Perez Garcia died in battle and received the Medal of Honor posthumously.

At the last telegraphy competition in 1939, the champion sent 74 words a minute.

Since the first atomic test was carried out Feb. 13, 1960, President Charles de Gaulle has been pressing to develop for France an independent nuclear striking force. Each explosion has brought more and more criticism from other African nations, and the testing now may shift to another area.

Both Sides Held Accepting Plea For Laos Cease-Fire

COMBINED AP & UPI

Both sides in the war in Laos today were reported as accepting the British-Soviet appeal for a cease fire.

The British Foreign Office announced that the royal Laotian government formally accepted the call for a cease fire.

In Moscow, the official Soviet news agency Tass reported that the Communist-backed Pathet Lao also agreed to stop the fighting immediately.

Tass said Prince Souphanouvong, the so-called Red prince who is political leader of the Pathet Lao rebels, "will order (his) armed forces to cease fire throughout the country."

The agency said Souphanouvong "warmly acclaims" the cease fire appeal and the call for a 14-nation conference to work out the future of Laos.

British officials expressed hope that the cease fire would be put into effect within the next few days.

A broadcast in Peiping said the neutralist ex-premier, stopping over in Communist North Viet Nam after a visit to Moscow and Peiping, called for a peace meeting of all factions Saturday.

CONFERENCE

Britain and the Soviet Union were sending out invitations for a 14-nation conference to work out arrangements for a neutral, independent Laos. The invitations said the conference would open May 12 in Geneva.

The Laotian government announced its commander in chief is "ready to establish contact at any moment with the responsible head of the opposing forces" to fix the "day and hour of an effective cease-fire."

U.S. STAND

The three-nation control commission-India, Canada and Poland—which will supervise the truce, is scheduled to hold its first meeting in New Delhi-India, on Friday. The United States has served notice that it will not attend the Geneva conference until a truce is in effect and has been verified.

The U.S. found a gap showed in the text of the cease-fire proposal as published last night. The plan set no specific date for a halt to the fighting, beyond saying it should stop before the Geneva parley begins.

Bishop Pike Rips U.S. For Hungary, Cuba

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Episcopal Bishop James A. Pike of San Francisco says the United States was guilty of bumbling and fumbling in Hungary, Cuba and concerning the U-2 spy flight.

Speaking to the Los Angeles World Affairs Council yesterday, he questioned whether America is completely innocent of some of the delinquencies of which it accuses the Communists.

Bishop Pike analyzed the American Cuban attitude as being first to deny any connection with the attempted invasion "and now investigating to see why we didn't do better."

This, he said, followed the same pattern of the U-2 incident, and the policy of inciting the people of Hungary to fight for freedom, then doing nothing.

Former G.E. Chief Tied To Price Fixing

WASHINGTON (AP)—A former General Electric Co. executive testified today he was told in 1957 that Robert Paxton, then G.E. president, gave instructions that led to price fixing agreements with competitors.

The testimony was given by Clarence E. Burke of Villanova, Pa., who pleaded guilty earlier this year to government charges of price-fixing. He was fined $3,500 and given a one-month suspended jail sentence.

Burke was the first of the defendants in the price fixing and bid-rigging conspiracy case to be called before the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee.

In general, Burke's testimony was that "we always got these instructions to contact competitors through the line of command." They were told also, he said, to keep their price-fixing activities secret from the company's lawyers.

Both Sides See Victory In Death Penalty Fight

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Foes of capital punishment today began another fight in the Assembly to end the death penalty in California.

Before the debate opened, both sides predicted victory.

Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan (D-Los Angeles), whose bill would declare a four-year moratorium on the death penalty in all but a few cases, claimed the 41 votes necessary for passage "if they don't slide and slip away."

Assemblyman Charles Conrad, (R-Sherman Oaks) advocate of capital punishment, declared "I think we've got McMillan stopped by one or two votes but it will be very close."

A vote was scheduled on both McMillan's bill and a measure providing for outright repeal by Assemblyman John O'Connell, (D-San Francisco).

O'Connell said he'll support the Los Angeles' lawmaker's legislation because it has a better chance.

Under McMillan's bill, the San Quentin gas chamber would be closed down for four years except for police killers, kidnap slayers, inmates who kill in prison or during a jailbreak and first degree murderers who kill again.

Although the Assembly has once before approved a moratorium bill, the Senate has steadfastly refused to end capital punishment.

Gov. Brown, who has said he'd sign either of the two bills, has not campaigned for them.

Narcotics Wiretap Bill Is Rejected

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Assembly Criminal Proceedure Committee rejecting a bill permitting some wiretapping in narcotics cases after it was assailed as an "unwarranted invasion of privacy."

The bill by Assemblyman Bruce Allen (R-Los Gatos) would have required permission from a superior judge for the wiretapping with the evidence gained restricted to narcotics prosecutions.

The vote yesterday was 6-4 against the measures.

The committee then unanimously approved a bill by Assemblyman Nicholas Petris, (D-Oakland), setting up a treatment program for some volunteer narcotics users whose criminal conduct is considered primarily due to their addiction.

Addicts who passed screening would be treated in a hospital and, when possible, paroled under close supervision. The program would be open only to persons eligible for probation.

Criminal charges would be dismissed in some cases where the addicts were cured.

Naval Reserve Meeting

Naval Reserve Composite Unit 12/17 will meet at 8 p.m. today in the faculty lounge of the College of Marin. Lt. Nelson will give an illustrated lecture on "Behind the Scenes in Africa Today." Commdr. C. O. Hughes said unaffiliated reserve officers are invited to attend.

Mill Valley Library Trustees To Meet

Trustees of the Mill Valley Public Library will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the library to discuss a proposal to participate in the North Bay Library Assn.

David Sabsay, administrator of the association, will address the trustees on the proposal which, if adopted, would mean Mill Valley would join a group of participating libraries to provide cataloguing and other services.

Membership in the association was turned down by the Mill Valley City Council Feb. 17, 1960.

Bird Banned

BALTIMORE (AP) — Major, a talking Mynah bird at the Baltimore Zoo, has been removed from public sight and hearing because someone taught it to say two six-letter bad words. The bird cost $200 when bought in 1957. Zoo Director Arthur Watson is trying to salvage his investment by teaching the Mynah to say instead, "Mother found her little boy."

Chamber Music Concert Called A Masterpiece

By MABELLE SPECKMAN

Last night's Dominican College concert artist series program presented by the Alma Trio in Angelico Hall was a masterpiece of chamber music art as performed by Violinist Maurice Wilk, cellist Gabor Rejto and pianist Adolph Baller.

They held an audience made up largely of young women students almost spellbound with the perfection of their performance of Beethoven's Trio in F Flat Major Opus 1, No. 1 and Schubert's Trio in E Flat Major, Opus 100.

HIGH QUALITY

Accustomed as Marin music lovers are to high quality music, they seldom have the opportunity to listen to a group that has played together long enough to give a completely polished and balanced performance of all the potential subleties of technique and nuances of expression in great works.

Each member of the trio produced a tonal quality perfect for the timbre of his instrument.

PURE, LYRICAL

The violin was pure and lyrical even in the highest register, the cello warm and mellow and the piano brilliant, especially in such shimmering cascades of notes as those in the allegro of the Schubert trio and in rapid legato passages.

In response to insistent applause the group played the last movement of Beethoven's Trio Opus 17, No. 2.

It was a privilege to hear this superb trio.

Optometrist Honored

Dr. James F. Wetmore, San Rafael optometrist and one of the first members of the San Francisco and Marin Counties Optometric Society, has been voted an honorary membership in the organization, it was announced by President elect Dr. John W. Hoag of Mill Valley.

MARIN CITY CLASSROOMS

Manzanita School Dedication Planned

Manzanita School will be dedicated at 10 a.m. Saturday at Marin City, Chairman Minnie Sievers of the Sausalito School District board announced last night at the "kick off dinner" for public schools week at Sausalito's Central School.

Mrs. Sievers said the new building, with five classrooms, will be used in addition to the present building, which holds eight classes. The school was formerly called Marin City School.

Members of the IDESST of Sausalito will present an American flag at the ceremony. Native Sons of the Golden West, Sea Point Parlor, will present the Bear flag.

Approximately 200 attended the dinner.

Mrs. Dorothy M. Brown, third grade teacher at Central School,, was presented with an orchid by Supt. Marcus F. Davis on behalf of the administration for her work over the past 15 years. She is retiring at the end of the school year.

Laurel Dell Contract On Agenda

The San Rafael Board of Education will consider awarding a contract for construction of the new Laurel Dell Intermediate School at 7:30 p.m. today in the administration building, 215 Mission Avenue.

Bids were opened April 14, but award of a contract was held up until bonds were sold. Robert S. Miller of San Rafael submitted the lowest of eight bids—$191,777.

San Rafael City Council members are scheduled to attend the board meeting tonight to discuss the 1961-62 recreation program.

Also on the agenda: consideration of an agreement with Marin Assn. for Retarded Children for use of a building at San Rafael High School; appointments of ten new teachers and resignations of five; report on school buses being sold by Reed District; budget items.

County Hospital To Award Contract

A contract is to be awarded tonight by the Marin County Hospital District Board for construction of a 116-bed addition to Marin General Hospital.

Barrett Brothers Construction Co. of San Francisco offered a low bid of $1,972,000 for the job on March 28. Nine bids were submitted.

Landmarks Group May Add Train In May 6 Outing

The Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society may add one more train run to its May 6 schedule between Tiburon and San Rafael to meet the demand.

Two runs are now scheduled —one leaving Tiburon at 10:30 a.m. and returning at 12:15 p.m. for children and another leaving at 3 p.m. and returning at 4:45 p.m. The third trip would leave at 1 p.m. and return at 3:45 p.m.

Train rides, aboard the Northwestern Pacific Railroad, are being arranged in connection with an exhibit of old photos of railroading being set up by the society to be shown May 6 and 7 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at old St. Hilary's Church.

100 Scouts Braved Storm For Camporee

One hundred Marin Boy Scouts from six Miwok District troops attended the camporee at Green Valley, northeast of Vallejo, as scheduled last weekend, despite a weekend storm.

The Southern District postponed its camporee at Camp Tamarancho to May 13 and 14, and not the Miwok troops, as reported in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

RAINS STOPPED

The rains stopped enough for all but one of the scheduled events at Green Valley to take place, district camping chairman Jack Crowell reported.

The scouts set up camp in the rain, however, on Friday. After the sun came out Saturday competitive events were held.

Outstanding: Hawks and Flaming Arrows of Troop 12; Flying Dragons of Troops 64; Flying Eagles and Falcons of Troop 67; Mohawks, Iroquois, and Flintstones of Troop 74; and Panthers of Troop 76.

BALD EAGLES

Standard: Bald Eagles and Royal Knights of Troop 64; Flaming Arrows, Stags, and Turtles of Troop 55; and Bats of Troop 74.

Outstanding troops were Troop 12, Novato Presbyterian Church; Troop 67, Terra Linda Community Services District; Troop 74, Marinwood Home and School Club; and Troop 76, Christ Presbyterian Church.

Standard troops were Troop 55, Marin Rod and Gun Club; and Troop 64, Marinwood Home and School Club.

Grass Skirts Wiggle As Hawaii Week Starts

Grass skirts wiggled on a platform in front of the courthouse, "Song of the Islands" sounded over a downtown loud speaker system, and the governor of Hawaii and mayor of Honolulu extended felicitations to San Rafael today.

The reason: San Rafael merchants are celebrating "Hawaii Week," with a flying trip to the islands for two to be given away to some lucky shopper.

The grass skirts were part of a noon show on a platform in front of the courthouse, set up by the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce. There'll be similar programs there each noon, and the winning number for the trip will be drawn there at noon next Monday.

Ice-Cream Eating Burglar Strikes Again, And Fails

This time it was at the Purity Store on Manuel T. Freitas Parkway in the Northgate Shopping Center, where there was a duplicate of Saturday night's attempt on the safe at Golden State Co. at 648 Lindaro Street, San Rafael.

While on patrol at 12:50 a.m. today, Officer Thomas Stephenson of San Rafael police noticed the glass parcel windows in the front of the store were open.

At the rear of the store, a truck was making a delivery to the produce room, but the driver did not have access to the main part of the store.

Stephenson radioed to police headquarters and had the dispatcher call the store manager, Alfred Matteri of Petaluma. Matteri told police to go into the store and investigate why the windows were open.

They found the safe in the service center wall in the front of the store had been beaten with a 12-pound sledge hammer. The dial was knocked off and the bolts knocked out of the hinges. The cement floor in front of the safe had been beaten with the sledge (probably in anger), they reported.

Two chisels, two punches and the hammer lay beside the safe.

Part of a gallon package of ice cream and some pie and pastries had been eaten. All the butcher knives were stuck in the floor behind the meat counter, police said.

Police surmise that the person responsible had hidden in the store until it closed, then went to work on the safe. A little more than two hours had elapsed from the time the store was locked at 10:30 p.m. until the attempt on the safe was discovered.

The delivery truck driver had seen no one in the store, said Matteri, who arrived just as he was leaving at 2 a.m.

The safe breakers probably were frightened and fled when the delivery truck came, Matteri guessed.

College Unit Divides Into 3 Committees

College of Marin's citizens advisory committee voted last night to divide itself into three subcommittees.

One subcommittee, headed by Mrs. John B. Ehlen of Sausalito, will study "the college and the community." The second, headed by William Franchini of San Anselmo, will concern itself with "future planning." And the third group, led by Dr. Arnold Nutting of Ross, will investigate "students and their diverse activities."

Nutting already had begun preliminary inquiries and made a brief report last night on circumstances which led to canceling the College of Marin football schedule in mid-season last year.

Dr. Stephen E. Epler, director of the college, discussed accreditation procedures, explaining that the college is scheduled to be visited by an accreditation team next December.

Mrs. Hugh Marchant of Kentfield reported preliminary results of a survey conducted among members of the Marin Assn. of University Women to determine attitudes toward College of Marin. Results of the survey indicated a majority of people have favorable opinions about the college, she said.

Bedroom Fire Burns Girl, 10; $3,500 Damage

Ten-year-old Marie Hoefer opened the door to a bedroom storage area in her home at 445 Peachstone Terrace, Marinwood, yesterday and discovered the house was on fire.

Flames ate their way through the closet door, burned the bedroom and roof. Marie was slightly burned.

Marinwood Fire Chief Donald G. Ray estimated damage to house and contents at $3,500. The upper floor where the fire started had extensive smoke damage; the main floor was slightly water-damaged.

Ray said cause of the blaze in the frame and stucco structure has not been determined.

Owner Clarence B. Hoefer, his wife and an older child were not at home when the fire broke out.

Action Taken For New Land By Hub School Trustees

San Anselmo School District trustees last night hired two appraisers as the first step in acquiring four parcels of land for an addition to Wade Thomas School.

Neil J. Brodsgar of San Rafael and David G. Cohn of San Anselmo will make the appraisals for the board. The land is across Kensington Road from the present school site. The trustees also employed Eugene Crawford of Crawford and Banning, San Rafael architects, to draw site plans which will include closing Kensington Road where it dead-ends at the school.

The board is negotiating with the Community Presbyterian Church for classroom space to house the extra students which are expected at Wade Thomas School next fall, Supt. Stephen Parodi said.

Charles Fitch, summer school principal, said 708 have enrolled for summer school. This is the largest number ever enrolled for the summer session, he said.

The trustees received resignations from a principal and five teachers. They are: Robert Johnston, principal of Sleepy Hollow and Hidden Valley Schools; Mrs. Louise Bollman, third grade at Yolansdale School; Mrs. Louise Holcomb, fourth grade at Yolansdale; Lynn Marnin, fourth grade at Brookside; Mrs. Betty Stohler, second grade at Yolansdale, and Mrs. Katherine Baxter, fifth grade at Wade Thomas.

Tam Board Passes Road Money Fund

The Tamalpais Union High School District trustees last night approved payment of $10,000 to the City of Larkspur toward the district's share in construction of extension of Doherty Drive to Redwood High School.

According to an agreement between the district and the city, the district's share is not to exceed $19,500.

The board also approved a contract with Brown-Ely Construction Co. of San Rafael for construction of the Doherty Drive extension onto high school property. Of four bidders, Brown-Ely was low at $7,900. Other bidders were Lee Mac Paving Co., Corte Madera; Ghillotti Brothers, San Rafael, and O. C. Jones and Son, Berkeley.

Decision on award of a contract for construction of a language laboratory at Tamalpais High School was held over pending further study of the five bids submitted.

Supt. Chester G. Carlisle had recommended to the board that the low bid of $10,975 by American Seating Co. be accepted. The decision to postpone came when Trustee Howard I. McGill said he had been informed the underwriters laboratory had given approval only to the equipment supplied by Audio Teachings System of Menlo Park. Carlisle said an investigation would be made.

Other bidders were Science Electronics Co. of Cambridge, Mass.; Dictaphone Co. of San Francisco, and Coast Visual Co. of Oakland.

Recommendations from the salary committee of the Tamalpais District Teachers Assn. regarding summer school salaries, hurdle requirements and basic salary schedules were taken under study by the trustees. They are to be acted on at the May 1 meeting of the board.

In other action last night, the trustees:

1. Instructed County Counsel E. Warren McGuire to attempt to negotiate a settlement in the district's dispute with E. A. Forde Co., who constructed a sewer line under Lucky Drive on district property. The district claims the line failed. The contractor maintains he fulfilled his contract. If the matter cannot be negotiated, it will be heard in Marin Superior Court on May 9.

2. Granted a year's leave of absence to Dirk West, counselor and English teacher at Redwood High School. West will attend a leadership training program at San Francisco State College during his leave.

3. Approved a contract not to exceed $1,850 for the fiscal year with the auditing firm of Weiser, Dreiman and Weseman of Oakland for auditing the district records.

4. Accepted a gift of a pair of three-foot circular mosaic plaques from last year's graduating class at Redwood High School. The plaques, executed by Mill Valley artist Stephen Dimitross, will be placed in the entrance hall at Redwood.

5. Adopted a motion expressing thanks to the "hundreds of persons, the press, radio and television" for support of passage of the three million dollar bond issue last week.

6. Adjourned until 8 o'clock tonight to canvass ballots of the April 18 election and for possible discussion on the sale of the approved bonds.

Novato Names Subdivision Committee

Novato planning commissioners last night appointed a committee to redraft a proposed minor subdivision ordinance.

Commissioners Alfred Bellucci and Don R. Hoffman are to work with city administration and the planning staff on details of the ordinance which would regulate subdivisions of fewer than four lots. Such small subdivisions are not now covered by city laws. The commission set May 22 as the date for reconsideration of the third draft of the ordinance.

Commissioners recommended planned industrial zoning for some 50 acres of land across Highway 101 from the Novato airport, known as the Bodkin estate. The land is outside the city. The matter was referred by the county planning commission to the city for its recommendation.

Also approved last night were a 12-acre subdivision east of Lynwood Heights, being developed by Sutter Development Co., and a 3½ acre subdivision, Sunny Acres, on an extension of Cherry Street, requested by J. R. Fahlstrom, San Francisco.

Commissioners agreed to ask the county planning commission to delay decision for a requested small addition to Palm Lane Trailer Court just outside the city limits, until a decision can be made on trailer court zoning within the city.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed sharply higher in a vigorous recovery drive from Monday.

Key stocks recovered from fractions to 2 or 3 points as they rebounded from Monday's setback, the worst in seven months.

Many "growth" issues which lost several points yesterday won back a good portion of their losses. Today's big gainers were, in general, the big losers of Monday.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.9 million shares compared with 4.59 million yesterday.

of homes in Lucas Valley for men or women of 50 or over who were incapacited.

Supervisor William Gnoss objected "it would be hasty to make a decision today." He not only wanted the Plumhof report but said "we've been looking into something that, if it goes through, might cause considerable saving."

Discussion pinned down the mysterious "something" to a recent visit by all members of the board except Fusselman to some property the county might acquire in place of a new hospital—apparently an existing nursing home though nobody would specify. (Supervisor George Ludy said "Not San Rafael General Hospital.")

The housing proposal finally was brought to a vote against Castro's protest that "we're stepping too fast on this." The motion by Supervisor J. Walter Blair carried 3-2, with Gnoss and Castro voting "no."

Then came another tussle over the bond issue.

"I wouldn't want two million dollars put in, for we're thinking in terms of not more than half," said Ludy.

He referred to the unrevealed possible purchase and said, "If we go through we could come out smelling like a rose for under half a million."

"With two million you're safeguarded," argued Fusselman. "If you put two million on you're licked before you start," retorted Ludy. Blair agreed.

"Suppose you need another million, would the board be prepared to put the extra money on the tax rate?" asked Fusselman.

The project we have in mind is within $450,000," said Ludy.

"I'd rather cut to one million," said Blair whereupon Fusselman yielded with the comment, "You can always put it on the tax rate. I'd vote for that!"

Blair then moved adoption of the resolution for bond election with the amount specified as one million dollars.

Blair moved and Ludy seconded the bond resolution.

"I feel the need of a hospital," said Castro, "but don't feel it belongs on the ballot with low rent housing."

"I feel the same way," added Gnoss, voting with Castro to make two "nos."

OBITUARIES

Martha E. Simkins Succumbs

Funeral services will be held Thursday for Martha E. Simkins, 72, of San Rafael, who died at her home Monday after several months' illness.

A resident of San Rafael for 10 years, Mrs. Simkins lived at 1748 Lincoln Avenue. She was the widow of John W. Simkins, a stationary engineer, who died about two years ago.

Services are set for 11 a.m. Thursday at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

She leaves four daughters, Mrs. Fern Jurick of San Rafael, Mrs. Opal Layman of Fairfax, Mrs. Cletis Veo of Brisbane, and Mrs. Luella Crawford of Lansing, Mich. She is also survived by 12 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

She was a native of Silver City, Ia., and came to California 18 years ago.

JOSEPH J. SALMINA

Joseph John Salmina, a lifelong resident of Novato, died early today at his home of a heart attack. He was 50.

Salmina was born in Novato June 10, 1910, and resided with his wife, the former Marie Carminati, at 858 Railroad Avenue. Salmina was a truck driver for the Marin County Public Works Department.

He is survived by his wife, a son, Edward, 16, a Novato High School student, and a daughter, Julieann, 11. Also surviving are a brother, Louis J. Salmina, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Hale, both of Novato.

A Requiem High Mass will be sung at 9:30 a.m. Thursday at Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home, Novato, followed by memorial services by members of the Novato Druids, of which Salmina was a member. Interment will be in Olema Cemetery.

GERTRUDE MILLER

Mrs. Gertrude Miller, 82, died early yesterday at the home of her son, Ezra Miller, 56 Glen Road, Novato. She had suffered from a heart condition.

Mrs. Miller had lived with her son for the past three years. Other survivors include two other sons, Herby Miller of Novato and Marion Miller, Sonoma, and seven other children in the mid-West and South.

Funeral services will be held Friday in Newport, Ark., followed by interment in the family plot there. Local arrangements are being made by the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home, Novato.

H. T. McCLUNG

Funeral services for Harrison Taylor McClung, 63, former Belvedere resident, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at St. Luke's Church in Auburn, Placer County. Interment will be in Dutch Flat, also Placer County.

McClung, a resident of Dutch Flat, died of a heart attack Sunday while he was changing a tire on Highway 101 north of Vallejo.

He was a former director of international trade fair for the U. S. Department of Commerce and had lived in Belvedere about 15 years until about 1950.

was taken to Petaluma General Hospital where attendants today reported only that his condition was "satisfactory." Mrs. Arritt said it was not known whether any bones were broken.

The Shoemaker firm has been moving houses for 26 years "and this is the first time such a thing has happened," said Mrs. Arritt. Her husband has been with the firm 24 years.

Ogden, who is operator of the Richardson Bay Sanitary District's sewage treatment plant, arrived home last evening to find his house a mass of twisted timbers. The stucco exterior walls were little harmed, but floors were askew and partitions collapsed.

"I sure don't know where I'm going to put them," he said ruefully.

Gas Price War At 'Stand-Still'

This opinion was expressed today by several service station operators who have not changed their prices since the price war began several weeks ago.

Stations in other parts of the Bay Area have reportedly raised prices five to six cents a gallon. Prices in Marin County have held steady at 23.9 per gallon for regular and 27.9 and 28.9 per gallon for ethyl gasoline.

Machinists Strike Continues; 3d Day

Daniel T. Bergman, plant operator, said the company and the striking Machinists Union 238 have not held any negotiation meeting since the strike started Friday. He said no meeting has been scheduled.

Between 60 and 70 men are involved in the strike, Bergman said.

Mercury Orbit Attempt Fails

CAPE CANAVERAL (AP)—An attempt to hurl an unmanned project Mercury space capsule into an orbit about the earth failed today when the Atlas booster rocket exploded in flight about 30 seconds after launch.

The 1½-ton capsule was pulled free by an escape mechanism and parachuted toward the Atlantic Ocean just off the Cape.

Ten Teachers Are Hired By Tam Board

Ten teachers, including a married couple, were hired last night by the Tamalpais Union High School District board.

The couple are Frederick and Eileen Hawkes, both of whom attended Sacramento State College and are now teaching at Vacaville High School. Hawkes will teach science at Tamalpais High School. Mrs. Hawkes will teach business education at Redwood High School.

Of the 10 hired, only one is from Marin County. He is Charles Wray of 81 Shields Lane, Novato, who will also teach business education at Redwood. A graduate of San Francisco State College and University of California, Wray was a student teacher at Redwood this year.

Also approved by the board for employment were:

Thomas La Mantea, now teaching at Orosi High School near Tulare, to teach art at Redwood; Nancy Lemmon, now teaching at Del Paso High School in North Sacramento, to teach girls' physical education at Redwood; Marilyn Jean Post, now at Livermore High School, for social studies and counseling at Redwood; Jack Sorelle, now teaching in a Detroit elementary school, for general shop work at Redwood; Gerold Vanoti, now teaching at San Juan High School in Sacramento, for science at Tamalpais; Jack Warren, now at Ravenswood High School in Santa Clara County, for science at Sir Francis Drake, Beverly Wingard, now with the U.S. Foreign Service in Paris, for Spanish and French at Redwood.

Decision on award of a contract for construction of a language laboratory at Tamalpais High School was held over pending further study of the five bids submitted.

Supt. Chester G. Carlisle had recommended to the board that the low bid of $10,975 by American Seating Co. be accepted. The decision to postpone came when Trustee Howard I. McGill said he had been informed the underwriters laboratory had given approval only to the equipment supplied by Audio Teachings System of Menlo Park. Carlisle said an investigation would be made.

Other bidders were Science Electronics Co. of Cambridge, Mass.; Dictaphone Co. of San Francisco, and Coast Visual Co. of Oakland.

Recommendations from the salary committee of the Tamalpais District Teachers Assn. regarding summer school salaries, hurdle requirements and basic salary schedules were taken under study by the trustees. They are to be acted on at the May 1 meeting of the board.

In other action last night, the trustees:

1. Instructed County Counsel E. Warren McGuire to attempt to negotiate a settlement in the district's dispute with E. A. Forde Co., who constructed a sewer line under Lucky Drive on district property. The district claims the line failed. The contractor maintains he fulfilled his contract. If the matter cannot be negotiated, it will be heard in Marin Superior Court on May 9.

2. Granted a year's leave of absence to Dirk West, counselor and English teacher at Redwood High School. West will attend a leadership training program at San Francisco State College during his leave.

3. Approved a contract not to exceed $1,850 for the fiscal year with the auditing firm of Weiser, Dreiman and Weseman of Oakland for auditing the district records.

4. Accepted a gift of a pair of three-foot circular mosaic plaques from last year's graduating class at Redwood High School. The plaques, executed by Mill Valley artist Stephen Dimitross, will be placed in the entrance hall at Redwood.

5. Adopted a motion expressing thanks to the "hundreds of persons, the press, radio and television" for support of passage of the three million dollar bond issue last week.

6. Adjourned until 8 o'clock tonight to canvass ballots of the April 18 election and for possible discussion on the sale of the approved bonds.

Novato Names Subdivision Committee

Novato planning commissioners last night appointed a committee to redraft a proposed minor subdivision ordinance.

Commissioners Alfred Bellucci and Don R. Hoffman are to work with city administration and the planning staff on details of the ordinance which would regulate subdivisions of fewer than four lots. Such small subdivisions are not now covered by city laws. The commission set May 22 as the date for reconsideration of the third draft of the ordinance.

Commissioners recommended planned industrial zoning for some 50 acres of land across Highway 101 from the Novato airport, known as the Bodkin estate. The land is outside the city. The matter was referred by the county planning commission to the city for its recommendation.

Also approved last night were a 12-acre subdivision east of Lynwood Heights, being developed by Sutter Development Co., and a 3½ acre subdivision, Sunny Acres, on an extension of Cherry Street, requested by J. R. Fahlstrom, San Francisco.

Commissioners agreed to ask the county planning commission to delay decision for a requested small addition to Palm Lane Trailer Court just outside the city limits, until a decision can be made on trailer court zoning within the city.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed sharply higher in a vigorous recovery drive from Monday.

Key stocks recovered from fractions to 2 or 3 points as they rebounded from Monday's setback, the worst in seven months.

Many "growth" issues which lost several points yesterday won back a good portion of their losses. Today's big gainers were, in general, the big losers of Monday.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.9 million shares compared with 4.59 million yesterday.

COUNTY

of homes in Lucas Valley for men or women of 50 or over who were incapacited.

Supervisor William Gnoss objected "it would be hasty to make a decision today." He not only wanted the Plumhof report but said "we've been looking into something that, if it goes through, might cause considerable saving."

Discussion pinned down the mysterious "something" to a recent visit by all members of the board except Fusselman to some property the county might acquire in place of a new hospital—apparently an existing nursing home though nobody would specify. (Supervisor George Ludy said "Not San Rafael General Hospital.")

The housing proposal finally was brought to a vote against Castro's protest that "we're stepping too fast on this." The motion by Supervisor J. Walter Blair carried 3-2, with Gnoss and Castro voting "no."

Then came another tussle over the bond issue.

"I wouldn't want two million dollars put in, for we're thinking in terms of not more than half," said Ludy.

He referred to the unrevealed possible purchase and said, "If we go through we could come out smelling like a rose for under half a million."

"With two million you're safeguarded," argued Fusselman. "If you put two million on you're licked before you start," retorted Ludy. Blair agreed.

"Suppose you need another million, would the board be prepared to put the extra money on the tax rate?" asked Fusselman.

The project we have in mind is within $450,000," said Ludy.

"I'd rather cut to one million," said Blair whereupon Fusselman yielded with the comment, "You can always put it on the tax rate. I'd vote for that!"

Blair then moved adoption of the resolution for bond election with the amount specified as one million dollars.

Blair moved and Ludy seconded the bond resolution.

"I feel the need of a hospital," said Castro, "but don't feel it belongs on the ballot with low rent housing."

OBITUARIES

Martha E. Simkins Succumbs

Funeral services will be held Thursday for Martha E. Simkins, 72, of San Rafael, who died at her home Monday after several months' illness.

A resident of San Rafael for 10 years, Mrs. Simkins lived at 1748 Lincoln Avenue. She was the widow of John W. Simkins, a stationary engineer, who died about two years ago.

Services are set for 11 a.m. Thursday at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

She leaves four daughters, Mrs. Fern Jurick of San Rafael, Mrs. Opal Layman of Fairfax, Mrs. Cletis Veo of Brisbane, and Mrs. Luella Crawford of Lansing, Mich. She is also survived by 12 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

She was a native of Silver City, Ia., and came to California 18 years ago.

JOSEPH J. SALMINA

Joseph John Salmina, a lifelong resident of Novato, died early today at his home of a heart attack. He was 50.

Salmina was born in Novato June 10, 1910, and resided with his wife, the former Marie Carminati, at 858 Railroad Avenue. Salmina was a truck driver for the Marin County Public Works Department.

He is survived by his wife, a son, Edward, 16, a Novato High School student, and a daughter, Julieann, 11. Also surviving are a brother, Louis J. Salmina, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Hale, both of Novato.

A Requiem High Mass will be sung at 9:30 a.m. Thursday at Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home, Novato, followed by memorial services by members of the Novato Druids, of which Salmina was a member. Interment will be in Olema Cemetery.

GERTRUDE MILLER

Mrs. Gertrude Miller, 82, died early yesterday at the home of her son, Ezra Miller, 56 Glen Road, Novato. She had suffered from a heart condition.

Mrs. Miller had lived with her son for the past three years. Other survivors include two other sons, Herby Miller of Novato and Marion Miller, Sonoma, and seven other children in the mid-West and South.

Funeral services will be held Friday in Newport, Ark., followed by interment in the family plot there. Local arrangements are being made by the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home, Novato.

H. T. McCLUNG

Funeral services for Harrison Taylor McClung, 63, former Belvedere resident, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at St. Luke's Church in Auburn, Placer County. Interment will be in Dutch Flat, also Placer County.

McClung, a resident of Dutch Flat, died of a heart attack Sunday while he was changing a tire on Highway 101 north of Vallejo.

He was a former director of international trade fair for the U. S. Department of Commerce and had lived in Belvedere about 15 years until about 1950.

was taken to Petaluma General Hospital where attendants today reported only that his condition was "satisfactory." Mrs. Arritt said it was not known whether any bones were broken.

The Shoemaker firm has been moving houses for 26 years "and this is the first time such a thing has happened," said Mrs. Arritt. Her husband has been with the firm 24 years.

Ogden, who is operator of the Richardson Bay Sanitary District's sewage treatment plant, arrived home last evening to find his house a mass of twisted timbers. The stucco exterior walls were little harmed, but floors were askew and partitions collapsed.

"I sure don't know where I'm going to put them," he said ruefully.

Gas Price War At 'Stand-Still'

This opinion was expressed today by several service station operators who have not changed their prices since the price war began several weeks ago.

Stations in other parts of the Bay Area have reportedly raised prices five to six cents a gallon. Prices in Marin County have held steady at 23.9 per gallon for regular and 27.9 and 28.9 per gallon for ethyl gasoline.

Machinists Strike Continues; 3d Day

Daniel T. Bergman, plant operator, said the company and the striking Machinists Union 238 have not held any negotiation meeting since the strike started Friday. He said no meeting has been scheduled.

Between 60 and 70 men are involved in the strike, Bergman said.

Mercury Orbit Attempt Fails

CAPE CANAVERAL (AP)—An attempt to hurl an unmanned project Mercury space capsule into an orbit about the earth failed today when the Atlas booster rocket exploded in flight about 30 seconds after launch.

The 1½-ton capsule was pulled free by an escape mechanism and parachuted toward the Atlantic Ocean just off the Cape.

MOUNT TAMALPAIS CEMETERY
Quiet Beauty
for families of every faith

Ninety years ago, Marin pioneers set aside this lovely site as a final resting place for all faiths.

Since then, Mount Tamalpais has developed facilities to meet each family's preference. Here are lovely gardens, the Angeles Garden or Memory Chapel mausoleums for above-ground burial, Marin's modern new crematorium, and the Chapel of Light Columbarium.

If you haven't visited Mount Tamalpais, you are invited to see the beauty of its typically Marin setting. Our staff will be glad to answer your questions.

Planners Due PG&E Request On New Line

Pacific Gas and Electric Co. wants to construct two 220-kilowatt electric transmission lines from a proposed Bodega Bay generating plant in Sonoma County across Marin County to the Lakeville substation in Sonoma County and the Ignacion substation.

The Marin County Planning Commission will hold a public hearing Monday on the PG&E application for a use permit and adjustment for this project.

The lines would be on steel towers with a median height of 130 feet and maximum height of 170 feet.

The commission also will hold a public hearing to consider amendment of the Richardson Bay Master Plan to change the location of the pierhead line and bulkhead line. The item is 15th on the agenda.

The matter was prompted by a request of Tom E. Nowell who applied to the Army Corps of Engineers for a permit to dredge and fill in Richardson Bay. His proposal would not be in accord with the adopted master plan for Richardson Bay.

Also on the agenda is a request from Andre Brothers Contractors for an amendment to the zoning ordinance to rezone property on the north side of Belvedere Drive in Strawberry from two family residence district to multiple residence.

A public hearing also is scheduled on the application of D. M. Christensen for an adjustment to permit establishment of a pharmacy in conjunction with an approved medical building at 1123-1125 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield.

RAISES APPROVED IN CORTE MADERA

Many Corte Madera city employees will get a pay raise starting July 1, the town council decided last night after wrestling with the salary recommendations of Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow.

Police Chief Frank L. Nelson and his three officers will get increases, but the council was uncertain on an increase for the police department's investigating officer and sergeant.

Nelson, now getting $587 a month, will get a $30 raise, to $617. Pay of officers Charles Newman and Charles Rester will go from $460 to $509.

Investigating officer Harold Hockett and Sgt. David McIntosh receive $509 a month. Brandow recommended the council up their salary to $534, but Nelson asked an increase of $587 a month. He said this salary would compare with the county sheriff's office inspectors.

Hockett, also present during the wage discussion, told the council that his and the sergeant's job have increased" a thousand per cent." He said he felt they deserved higher pay than the town manager recommended.

The councilmen decided to table the matter for further study. Nelson was instructed to organize some facts showing the increase of work-load.

Pay of William McBride, building inspector and zoning administrator, will go from $617 to $648. Mrs. Naydeen Penny, senior clerk-typist who serves also as town clerk, will receive an increase of $398 to $417. For being town clerk, Mrs. Penny receives $2 a year, Brandow pointed out.

Mrs. Bertha Hall, account clerk, will get a pay boost from $378 to $398.

Brandow allowed himself no raise and will continue drawing $867 a month as town manager and engineer.

Town Atty. John R. Ehlen, whose position is part-time, also will remain at his present fee of $200 a month. Supt. of Public Works Robert Bartram will continue to draw $681 a month. His assistant, Paul Taylor, will get a boost of $17 to $439. Groundskeeper George Paraspolo will go from $439 a month to $460.

The council went along with Brandow's recommendation to raise maintenance man Frank Halbe from $361 to $378 and to keep the other maintenance man, Daniel Allen, at his present $417.

Salary decisions for other part-time employees were: Mrs. Ruth Laughlin, secretary, $2.40 an hour instead of her present $2.37; Reginald Tooker, hydrant maintenance man, to remain at $2.50 an hour; Laurence Yoell, school crossing guard, to continue at $2.25 an hour, and John Vance, investment counselor, upped to $75 from $55 a month.

The council reviewed part of its proposed personnel ordinance before the four-hour meeting was adjourned.

Included in the proposed ordinance is a stipulation that a town employee cannot run for an elected office while still employed by the town.

Another part of the proposed ordinance provides for layoffs without pay for disciplinary purposes. After some discussion, the councilmen agreed to knock out the "without pay" portion.

The proposed ordinance also states that for any demotion, dismissal or reduction of pay, the person will be entitled to appear before the council for a hearing.

The council will again discuss the ordinance at a regular meeting next Monday.

Auditions Set For 4 Music Scholarships

Auditions for four music scholarships offered by the Mill Valley Parent-Teacher Association Council to pupils in the Mill Valley School District will be held Sunday at Edna Maguire School from 2 to 5 p.m.

The scholarships, each providing one year of private instrumental music instruction, were made possible when music instructors offered to match funds raised by P-TA units.

To be eligible an applicant must: (1) Be in the sixth, seventh or eighth grade; (2) have completed at least one year in the instrumental music program of the Mill Valley School District; (3) be among the top 15 students according to the point system of achievement used in the school music program; (4) have an academic average of C; (5) have a recommendation from his classroom or home room teacher, and (6) have his parents' consent to audition.

Awards will be presented at the Mill Valley School Music Festival on May 9 at Tamalpais High School.

Contributions to the P-TA council music scholarship fund may be made through Mrs. Harry Magill, P-TA council music chairman.

I-J Hosts 110 Realtors In Special Week Event

In observance of National Realtor Week the Independent-Journal hosted 110 Marin County real estate brokers at a luncheon yesterday at Bob's of Marin restaurant in Corte Madera.

Guest speaker was Morton J. A. MacDonald, now retired, who organized the classified advertising department of the Oakland Tribune and was its classified manager for 50 years. He has also written three books on real estate advertising and contributed many articles to real estate journals.

MacDonald said brokers should frame their newspaper advertisements in the same manner that news stories are written. He recommended that all brokerage offices fill out a separate form for evaluating news possibilities on each listing so that when an advertisement is inserted, it will be headed and written to stress features that appeal to readers most likely to be interested.

If a small down payment or monthly payments are the most striking facts, they should be given their full "news" value to catch the eye of a logical buyer, he said.

"Good advertising does most of the work," he said, "and when the logical buyer calls at your office he is already half sold."

Redwood High Open House On Thursday

Redwood High School will observe Public Schools Week with an open house Thursday from 7:30-9:30 p.m.

The program will open in the gymnasium with introductions by Principal Donald Kreps and vocal music selections by students.

All departments will have demonstrations and exhibits. Students will be working on the school newspaper in the journalism department. Drama students will present a short play. English students will offer a symposium on "The Ugly American." Demonstrations are planned in the language laboratory, mathematics department and laboratories. A fashion show and display of vocational and fine arts projects also are planned.

Dr. Jens Lund, a University of California consultant on new methods of teaching algebra, will speak in one of the classrooms.

5 Students From Dominican Win

Five Dominican Upper School students were winners in the foreign language achievement congress for high schools in California last week at St. Mary's College in Moraga.

Fifteen Dominican students participated in the congress.

Winners were: Class A (two years of study), French, Pauline Riley, second place; Latin, Marie Bertolli, first place; Class B, (three or four years of study), French, Carol Burns, first place; Latin, Patricia Chapman, second place; Class C (native speakers), French, Elisabeth Ernoult, winner.

Old Age Medical Care Plan Is Hospital Convention Topic

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A proposal to finance old age medical care by the entire medical insurance community promises to be a major topic of conversation throughout this week's annual convention of the Assn. of Western Hospitals.

Dr. Edwin L. Crosby, American Hospital Assn. director, told 6,000 representatives of 1,300 western hospitals that the association is pushing state legislation that would make it illegal to cancel or emasculate medical aid plans upon retirement of the policy holder at age 65.

Crosby said the association and Blue Cross which it controls are opposed to President Kennedy's proposal that medical aid to the aged be financed through Social Security.

Under the association plan, higher rates to policy holders when they are younger and still earning would enable policies to continue in force at policy holder's retirement, and without lessening benefits.

Crosby added, however, some sort of federal aid to the indigent aged would be necessary since people over 65 have double the rate of need of medical care and hospitalization that people under 65 do.

Simulated Navy Minelaying Area

The Navy will continue to use an area off Tomales Point for simulated mine-laying operations for another five years.

Col. John A. Morrison, Army district engineer, has announced extension of this authorization to use the area by the Navy for that period.

A number of regulations are included in the authorization. Operations are limited to daylight hours between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. No explosives are used.

Planners Due PG&E Request On New Line

Pacific Gas and Electric Co. wants to construct two 220-kilowatt electric transmission lines from a proposed Bodega Bay generating plant in Sonoma County across Marin County to the Lakeville substation in Sonoma County and the Ignacion substation.

The Marin County Planning Commission will hold a public hearing Monday on the PG&E application for a use permit and adjustment for this project.

The lines would be on steel towers with a median height of 130 feet and maximum height of 170 feet.

The commission also will hold a public hearing to consider amendment of the Richardson Bay Master Plan to change the location of the pierhead line and bulkhead line. The item is 15th on the agenda.

The matter was prompted by a request of Tom E. Nowell who applied to the Army Corps of Engineers for a permit to dredge and fill in Richardson Bay. His proposal would not be in accord with the adopted master plan for Richardson Bay.

Also on the agenda is a request from Andre Brothers Contractors for an amendment to the zoning ordinance to rezone property on the north side of Belvedere Drive in Strawberry from two family residence district to multiple residence.

A public hearing also is scheduled on the application of D. M. Christensen for an adjustment to permit establishment of a pharmacy in conjunction with an approved medical building at 1123-1125 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield.

RAISES APPROVED IN CORTE MADERA

Many Corte Madera city employees will get a pay raise starting July 1, the town council decided last night after wrestling with the salary recommendations of Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow.

Police Chief Frank L. Nelson and his three officers will get increases, but the council was uncertain on an increase for the police department's investigating officer and sergeant.

Nelson, now getting $587 a month, will get a $30 raise, to $617. Pay of officers Charles Newman and Charles Rester will go from $460 to $509.

Investigating officer Harold Hockett and Sgt. David McIntosh receive $509 a month. Brandow recommended the council up their salary to $534, but Nelson asked an increase of $587 a month. He said this salary would compare with the county sheriff's office inspectors.

Hockett, also present during the wage discussion, told the council that his and the sergeant's job have increased" a thousand per cent." He said he felt they deserved higher pay than the town manager recommended.

The councilmen decided to table the matter for further study. Nelson was instructed to organize some facts showing the increase of work-load.

Pay of William McBride, building inspector and zoning administrator, will go from $617 to $648. Mrs. Naydeen Penny, senior clerk-typist who serves also as town clerk, will receive an increase of $398 to $417. For being town clerk, Mrs. Penny receives $2 a year, Brandow pointed out.

Mrs. Bertha Hall, account clerk, will get a pay boost from $378 to $398.

Brandow allowed himself no raise and will continue drawing $867 a month as town manager and engineer.

Town Atty. John R. Ehlen, whose position is part-time, also will remain at his present fee of $200 a month. Supt. of Public Works Robert Bartram will continue to draw $681 a month. His assistant, Paul Taylor, will get a boost of $17 to $439. Groundskeeper George Paraspolo will go from $439 a month to $460.

The council went along with Brandow's recommendation to raise maintenance man Frank Halbe from $361 to $378 and to keep the other maintenance man, Daniel Allen, at his present $417.

Salary decisions for other part-time employees were: Mrs. Ruth Laughlin, secretary, $2.40 an hour instead of her present $2.37; Reginald Tooker, hydrant maintenance man, to remain at $2.50 an hour; Laurence Yoell, school crossing guard, to continue at $2.25 an hour, and John Vance, investment counselor, upped to $75 from $55 a month.

The council reviewed part of its proposed personnel ordinance before the four-hour meeting was adjourned.

Included in the proposed ordinance is a stipulation that a town employee cannot run for an elected office while still employed by the town.

Another part of the proposed ordinance provides for layoffs without pay for disciplinary purposes. After some discussion, the councilmen agreed to knock out the "without pay" portion.

The proposed ordinance also states that for any demotion, dismissal or reduction of pay, the person will be entitled to appear before the council for a hearing.

The council will again discuss the ordinance at a regular meeting next Monday.

Auditions Set For 4 Music Scholarships

Auditions for four music scholarships offered by the Mill Valley Parent-Teacher Association Council to pupils in the Mill Valley School District will be held Sunday at Edna Maguire School from 2 to 5 p.m.

The scholarships, each providing one year of private instrumental music instruction, were made possible when music instructors offered to match funds raised by P-TA units.

To be eligible an applicant must: (1) Be in the sixth, seventh or eighth grade; (2) have completed at least one year in the instrumental music program of the Mill Valley School District; (3) be among the top 15 students according to the point system of achievement used in the school music program; (4) have an academic average of C; (5) have a recommendation from his classroom or home room teacher, and (6) have his parents' consent to audition.

Awards will be presented at the Mill Valley School Music Festival on May 9 at Tamalpais High School.

Contributions to the P-TA council music scholarship fund may be made through Mrs. Harry Magill, P-TA council music chairman.

Entries for the photo competitions being held in conjunction with the "Photography Days" festival in San Francisco must be submitted by May 8.

The festival is sponsored by the San Francisco Recreation and Park Department and the Northern California Council of Camera Clubs, of which the Ross Valley Camera Club is a member.

Entry blanks are available at Photography Center, 50 Scott Street, San Francisco.

I-J Hosts 110 Realtors In Special Week Event

In observance of National Realtor Week the Independent-Journal hosted 110 Marin County real estate brokers at a luncheon yesterday at Bob's of Marin restaurant in Corte Madera.

Guest speaker was Morton J. A. MacDonald, now retired, who organized the classified advertising department of the Oakland Tribune and was its classified manager for 50 years. He has also written three books on real estate advertising and contributed many articles to real estate journals.

MacDonald said brokers should frame their newspaper advertisements in the same manner that news stories are written. He recommended that all brokerage offices fill out a separate form for evaluating news possibilities on each listing so that when an advertisement is inserted, it will be headed and written to stress features that appeal to readers most likely to be interested.

If a small down payment or monthly payments are the most striking facts, they should be given their full "news" value to catch the eye of a logical buyer, he said.

"Good advertising does most of the work," he said, "and when the logical buyer calls at your office he is already half sold."

Redwood High Open House On Thursday

Redwood High School will observe Public Schools Week with an open house Thursday from 7:30-9:30 p.m.

The program will open in the gymnasium with introductions by Principal Donald Kreps and vocal music selections by students.

All departments will have demonstrations and exhibits. Students will be working on the school newspaper in the journalism department. Drama students will present a short play. English students will offer a symposium on "The Ugly American." Demonstrations are planned in the language laboratory, mathematics department and laboratories. A fashion show and display of vocational and fine arts projects also are planned.

Dr. Jens Lund, a University of California consultant on new methods of teaching algebra, will speak in one of the classrooms.

5 Students From Dominican Win

Five Dominican Upper School students were winners in the foreign language achievement congress for high schools in California last week at St. Mary's College in Moraga.

Fifteen Dominican students participated in the congress.

Winners were: Class A (two years of study), French, Pauline Riley, second place; Latin, Marie Bertolli, first place; Class B, (three or four years of study), French, Carol Burns, first place; Latin, Patricia Chapman, second place; Class C (native speakers), French, Elisabeth Ernoult, winner.

Old Age Medical Care Plan Is Hospital Convention Topic

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A proposal to finance old age medical care by the entire medical insurance community promises to be a major topic of conversation throughout this week's annual convention of the Assn. of Western Hospitals.

Dr. Edwin L. Crosby, American Hospital Assn. director, told 6,000 representatives of 1,300 western hospitals that the association is pushing state legislation that would make it illegal to cancel or emasculate medical aid plans upon retirement of the policy holder at age 65.

Crosby said the association and Blue Cross which it controls are opposed to President Kennedy's proposal that medical aid to the aged be financed through Social Security.

Under the association plan, higher rates to policy holders when they are younger and still earning would enable policies to continue in force at policy holder's retirement, and without lessening benefits.

Crosby added, however, some sort of federal aid to the indigent aged would be necessary since people over 65 have double the rate of need of medical care and hospitalization that people under 65 do.

Simulated Navy Minelaying Area

The Navy will continue to use an area off Tomales Point for simulated mine-laying operations for another five years.

Col. John A. Morrison, Army district engineer, has announced extension of this authorization to use the area by the Navy for that period.

A number of regulations are included in the authorization. Operations are limited to daylight hours between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday. No explosives are used.

The pressed slag blocks which pave the streets of Elisabethville in the Congo contain copper.

Long before aircraft engineers discovered jet propulsion, squid and octopi were propelling themselves swiftly by sucking water into their bodies and shooting it out.

SUPERVISORS ROUNDUP

Tam Valley Sewage Dispute Settled

Apparent settlement of the question of sewage disposal for 11 Shoreline properties near Tamalapais Valley junction was reached yesterday as the Marin County Board of Supervisors approved unanimously the fourth contract to be drafted between Almonte and Kay Park Sanitary Districts.

Though the properties are within Almonte district, that district cannot give service. So the owners agreed to build a line connecting with Kay Park. They objected to paying connection charges.

The supervisors ruled against the county public works department in choosing a contract which exempted the owners from the charges, only to find further complications and rescind this action. Two more contracts were drawn. Yesterday the board chose once more.

Assistant Auditor Michael Mitchell said the primary difference between the latest agreement and the former one was that the 11 properties to be connected will pay the same tax rate as Kay Park—about three cents higher than that of Almonte. The connection fee is still waived.

The supervisors also:

1. Approved security screens at juvenile hall, at cost of $558.
2. Accepted an offer by the probation committee to arrange dedication services for enlarged juvenile hall at 2 p.m. May 21.
3. Heard of new school traffic problems at Wolfe Grade and Sir Francis Drake Boulevard resulting from retrenchment of Highway Patrol guard, and accepted Chairman William D. Fusselman's offer to arrange with the sheriff for help until improvements can be made.
4. Referred to finance committee a health department request that Dr. Mary Jo Torelli, assistant health officer, and Mrs. Margaret Enin, senior accountant clerk, both attend a state meeting on crippled children services at Cambria, San Luis Obispo County, June 7-8.
5. Authorized the public works department to make a traffic count requested by Strawberry petitioners for East Strawberry Drive.
6. Received Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council request for public works department help in revising a boundary map and description for proposed Tiburon incorporation. Because Novato raised its own money for such purpose, the board asked evidence of a precedent for county aid.
7. Referred for budget consideration a Novato Junior Chamber request for $1,000 for its 1962 "Western Weekend."
8. Approved an ordinance broadening powers of the public works department to expend funds on streets partly located within cities.

Broemmel Wins Fight For Two Promotions

County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel suddenly won his fight yesterday for promotions of two subordinates who had qualified for different work by going through his "training school."

He put in a never-say-die letter detailing once more the record on Raymond Ogata and Earl Snowden, after having taken an apparently decisive beating three weeks ago on the same matter. Both men received the requested range changes by 3-2 vote.

This meant that both became appraisers in range 24, Ogata moving up in pay from $420 to $483 and Snowden from $555 to $581. Broemmel contended they deserved full promotions because of new qualifications rather than the ordinary step increases rewarding good work.

Supervisor J. Walter Blair, chairman of the finance committee which long ago recommended against the promotions, looked thunderstruck at receipt of the latest Broemmel letter painstakingly recounting his reasons.

"We told him to come back after July 1," he said.

But Supervisor Walter R. Castro moved approval of the promotions. A second came from William Gnoss. And on the vote George Ludy—on the finance committee with Blair—switched to "yes."

Chairman William D. Fusselman voted "no" with Blair but made no comment.

County Planning To Study Complicated Bids On Fuel

Union Oil Co. was disclosed yesterday as apparent low bidder for supplying gasoline to Marin County, and Richfield Oil Co. in the same position for motor diesel fuel, but the Marin County Board of Supervisors still was unable to come to conclusions on a complicated question.

When bids on gasoline, diesel fuel and lubricants were opened before the board last week by assistant purchasing agent John F. Hettrich, nobody was able to make head or tail of them because of the many technicalities involved plus the fact that the board had ordered bids both individual and "package."

Even after a week of analysis the only answer was that public works director Marvin W. Brigham wanted action deferred awhile longer to allow more detailed study of the bids.

Hettrich reported, however, that of nine bidders, Union Oil had come up with lowest offers of 20.69 cents a gallon for premium and 17.97 cents for regular, while Richfield's offer of diesel was 11.20 cents.

Part of the complication arose from necessity for digesting prices at various delivery points throughout Marin County.

McGuire Saves Job, Gets Raise; Board Wants Hike For Garety, Too

County Counsel E. Warren McGuire not only saved his job yesterday but made it worth $11,400 more during the next four years.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors also swept Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety into an equivalent income for the next four years, provided its recommendation to the legislature is followed.

Next year McGuire will get $13,800. Garety, if he receives his raise, will get $16,650.

During 1962-63, 1963-64 and 1964-65 McGuire is slated for $17,600 a year, whereas Garety is due for $16,650 a year.

Supervisor J. Walter Blair opened his long-awaited attack on the position of county counsel when the matter of the pay raises came before the board late yesterday. Blair got nowhere.

McGuire went before the supervisors to remind them of his request made March 15 for an increase, "assuming the office is not abolished." Decision could no longer be delayed, he said, because otherwise he would enter June 20 on a four-year term within which by constitutional provision there could be no salary change before June 20, 1965.

Supervisor Walter R. Castro lost no time in saying that he stood for retaining the job of county counsel and Chairman William D. Fusselman said:

"I personally have no idea of abolishing the office."

Castro praised "outstanding work" of McGuire. Gnoss cited the resignation of his predecessor, Leland H. Jordan, as indicating what could happen if the pay were not raised. Fusselman tried for a compromise by suggesting that McGuire's salary be untouched during next year with greater increases during the following three years.

The showdown came when Castro called for a vote to accept McGuire's request as put in his letter. They lost 2-3 with Blair, George Ludy and Fusselman voting no.

Ludy promptly moved for $13,800 unchanged during the next fiscal year and $17,600 for each of the next three.

"You're sticking your neck out," said Blair.

But this carried 4-1 with only Blair opposing.

Immediately it was recalled that the board had taken no action about Garety. Blair moved that the grand jury recommendation of $15,500 a year be backed. (This rejected the bar association's $17,500 suggestion and compares with a present $13,750 for Garety, just under McGuire's present $13,800.)

Ludy seconded and the motion passed unanimously.

But immediately Castro said: "It's an inequity . . . I move we rescind and get Garety in here." Gnoss seconded but Ludy said, "Let's rescind and make Garety and McGuire the same."

Fusselman said "divide $66,000 by four" ($66,000 is the amount McGuire would receive in four years). He came up with $16,650.

The board rescinded its action on Garety unanimously after which Castro moved to ask $16,650 a year for Garety. Gnoss seconded, and the vote was unanimous.

FIRST NATIONAL OPENS NEW OFFICE

County Supervisor Walter R. Castro cuts the ribbon officially opening new Terra Linda office of the First National Bank in San Rafael, in ceremonies yesterday in the Terra Linda Shopping Center. Looking on (from left) are William P. Murray, president of the bank; Glen E. Tovani, manager of the Terra Linda branch, and J. W. Hudspeth, vice president and branch supervisor of Crocker-Anglo National Bank, now negotiating to merge the San Rafael institution into its chain. The bank was one of four businesses opening in the shopping center yesterday. The others are the William J. Murray Real Estate office, Cox's TV Sales and Service, and the Terra Linda Launderette.

Novato Community Club Approves Repair Funds

Members of the Novato Community Club last night gave club directors power to spend up to $5,000 on clubhouse repairs, and elected John V. Sorenson as club president.

Sorenson replaces George Wahl. He is former house chairman for the group and a strong advocate of repairing the clubhouse.

Members last night voted 33-17 in favor of granting directors the right to spend the funds—if they can get them. Without membership approval, directors may spend only up to $500. There now are 180 club members.

The vote came following a brief discussion on whether the club will be able to find an agency which will lend it $5,000. Club member Alfred Bowman and the city of Novato are suing Novato Community, Inc. asking that the clubhouse be given to the city as they say was promised during formation of the club.

Sorenson, as house chairman before his election last night, reported that some $800 worth of repairs and additions have been completed thus far but the bill still is outstanding. Another $4,192 worth of repairs are needed to bring the building at 906 Machin Avenue up to fire safety standards, he said.

Repairs still needed include installation of sheet rock, additional exists and doors and "panic bars" for them (fittings which open the door when pushed), and a fire escape from the second floor.

Others elected last night were Sheldon Nickols, first vice president; Joe Jacob, third vice president; Mrs. George Barnwell, fourth vice president; Robert Thomas, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Colombo, recording secretary; Mrs. Ed Grundstrom, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Jack Miklos received three write-in votes for second vice president in charge of planning club events throughout the year, but had been contacted to see if she would accept.

Others elected were on a slate approved by club directors; the second vice president spot was vacant.

Directors elected were Richard Casey, James Helmick, Aaron Hiller, Eleanora LaFranchi, Vincent McGovern, Harry Overly, Robert Patterson and Dr. Leo Wagner. Defeated candidates fom the list proposed by club directors were Charles Roberts and Mrs. Wayne Tharp.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

You Just Can't Throw Away Long-Treasured Friends

An editor's mail is varied. It is well known that we have large wastepaper baskets and small filing cabinets.

We received the other day, an unusual bit of mail. It was an envelope mailed from Fairfax with no return address nor indication as to its sender. It had no letter in it, merely 11 clippings from newspapers, magazines and advertisements.

All of them were yellowed with age, worn from many foldings and, in some instances, Scotch taped together after they had been worn apart.

There are a poem "Oh, To Be In England—" clipped from the poetry section of a 1925 Literary Digest. And a poem "The Village School Teacher" with apologies to Longfellow, which started out like this:

Under the spreading schoolhouse roof,
The village teacher stands
With chalk dust smeared all o'er her face
And ink upon her hands.
With fire and lightning in her eyes
As order she demands.

There were two clippings from the letters column of the Chronicle, both praising Herbert Hoover. A Prudence Penny column answered a reader's request for "A Prayer For Homemakers."

Edgar A. Guest's "The Human Puzzle" was printed on the back of the business card of a San Francisco firm selling powdered soap dispensers.

There was a picture and news report from the Examiner of June 11, 1928, telling of a Piedmont man who invented a device which rolled automobiles sideways into parallel parking spaces. And there was a 1928 Literary Digest poem "Gjoa—To Amundsen" about the explorer and his tiny ship, now in Golden Gate Park.

The last three items also were poems: "Growing Older," a tribute to the 50th New York Cavalry; "Law Of Life," that man must battle to achieve a full life, and "If" with apologies to Kipling, which started: "If you can keep your hair when all about you are shearing theirs and wanting you to, too, . . . "

We'd say some elderly lady had come upon her treasures and couldn't bear to throw them away.

Neither could we; we filed them.

Old Time Spring Cleaning

When we were children, one of the big events of the spring season, and of the fall, was the archaic custom known as rug-beating.

Our rugs today are of a more delicate variety. No mighty clouds of dust would reward the modern beater. Why not? Because the rugs have been shampooed. "Shampooed" is Greek for washed with detergent. The real "poo" is of course the old-fashioned soap.

Today's spring cleaning is a rather clean affair. No great clouds of dust reward the devoted. No lusty, banging noise sunders the April air. We like it better.

FINAL LOOK FINDS GIRL

A desperate hunt for a 4-year-old girl in New Brunswick, N. J. turned out happily when a searcher took "one last look."

For hours 150 volunteers had scoured the snow-covered lanes without success, and finally abandoned their efforts.

One man, however, decided around midnight to go back to the girl's home for one last attempt. Passing a narrow alley he spotted a pile of untrampled snow and heard what "sounded like a puppy moaning." Digging with his hands he broke through to the little one, who had been missing for about 10 hours.

Although perseverance is not always crowned with success, there is no success without it. Whether it is in a search for a lost child or for reasonable economies in government, the Lord blesses those who refuse to take "no" for an answer: The welfare of others may depend on your ability to set a high goal and stick to it.

"No man putting his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God." (Luke 9:62)

Give me the staying power, O Holy Spirit, to see through a good purpose that others may do for evil.

One Question Celebrities Duck When Asked In An Interview

NEW YORK (AP) — It has been my good fortune to meet and interview many of the celebrities of our time.

The question I've asked them they disliked most was: "If something happened to you, what would be your own choice of an epitaph?"

Most of those I've presented this question to have politely ducked it.

Girls in particular are reluctant to be committed to an answer. A girl at her best picks her own idea of her renown and the last thing she would like to have to state would be her choice of the words on her tomb.

In this respect famous men are like famous women. They hesitate to face their disappearance from a world they have enjoyed to meet a reward they undoubtedly have earned but have no appetite to pursue alone.

And so they stumble and cavil about the epitaphs they would choose. But there are a few honest answers I remember:

Comedian Morey Amsterdam:

"He was a nice guy."

When I told Bob Hope about iMtchum's choice of an epitaph he laughed and declined to give one of his own.

The other question which I have asked many celebrities and found it does interest them and they are quite willing to answer is this:

"If you had to summarize the meaning of life in one word that expressed your own attitude toward living, what would it be?"

While this may be a sophomoric query, and it is, there is no other question I have asked of people that is more spontaneously evocative of reply.

SAID GARY COOPER: "Sincerity," and Myrna Loy: Love." Bob Hope: "Applause." And for that I respected him utterly, because he is a professional.

One thing you do discover above our country when you ask a person, whether he is a celebrity or not, what his synonym for life is — most people are optimistic.

THEY BELIEVE in this world.

The words that to most people most meaningfully stand for life are love, happiness, and hope.

My personal choice would be "hunger." The one I like best, however, was volunteered by a newspaper friend of 30 years. Life, he said is "sweet-sorrow."

Short Drive To Save Child's Life

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Small children DIE in drainage ditches.

Near Terra Linda High School, paralleling Nova Albion Way, is a drainage ditch which was plugged by debris thrown there by nearby residents.

A pond was formed there —three feet deep, full of rusty nails, boards, and mosquitoes. This pond became a playground for two to four year olds.

When informed about the pond, the Dixie School District quickly cleaned the pond. However, the "pond" will form again unless residents in the area stop filling the ditch with trash.

A short drive to the local dump may save your child's life.

Help Needed In Saving Wildflower

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I read your editorial last night (April 19) "Valerian and Poppies" with pleasure and appreciation. All too soon Marin's rapid growth will destroy the beauty of our hills in Spring.

The enclosed speaks for itself and an article in the Independent-Journal to follow "Valerian and Poppies" would be timely and perhaps foster interest so badly needed to save this area of botanical interest, not only to those living in Marin County, but to scientists throughout the world.

(NOTE: Reader Booth enclosed a plea from the Belvedere-Tiburon Landmarks Society to persons "who prefer uncommon wildflowers to common apartments" to participate in the current campaign of the society to purchase two acres of wildflower garden adjacent to old St. Hilary's Church, which itself has already been acquired by the society as an historical monument.)

Unfair New Income Tax Plan

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The present income tax laws of the United States exclude from the taxable income of stockholders the first $50 of dividends received, and also provide for a 4 per cent dividend credit.

Now, legislation has been introduced into the present session of Congress which would repeal these provisions. This legislation would be outright double taxation and I feel that every man, woman and child (over 21) should be informed about it and have a chance to write his representative.

Censorship Aimed Only At Trash

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I was among those present at the discussion of smutty and trashy publications which are much too easily available to our children.

There was, nor is, any intention of "burning down this house of liberty," or rather, indeed, it is to cherish and uphold all our hearts and energies "this house we live in" along with our rights of Life, Liberty, the pursuit of happiness and all the other inalienable rights of people.

It is most regretable that this issue was so terribly misconstrued. There is no intent to harass anyone or to censor anything except the trashy and smutty publications which only serve the purpose of corrupting the minds and hearts of our children whose right and duties it will be to one day uphold the Constitution of our beloved country. How can these rights, which our clear thinking forefathers set forth, be held in high esteem by our youth whose minds in these formative years can be fogged and degenerated by these trashy publications which are so easly available.

Altogether "Mr. Monardo represents a minority of one of the Mill Valley City Council" he represents the feeling of a great majority of parents and good citizens on this issue.

Loser Really 'Won' Election

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

It was Marilyn Steinau who really "won" the Reed school district election. Every vote she received was because the voter knew her, believed in her abilities, and wanted her point-of-view expressed. She officially lost by a very narrow margin because the magic word incumbent did not appear after her name.

True to her convictions, responding to a large group of concerned parents, and encouraged by the I-J editorials advocating more candidates and more active campaigns in school elections, Mrs. Steinau challenged the incumbents with a sound and fair discussion of local educational problems in all parts of the district. She has been of great service to everyone including the incumbents.

It is hoped that the Reed Parent-Teacher Club will again send Mrs. Steinau as their representative to the school board and that the trustees will give her wise counsel proper consideration, remembering that every voter who endorsed her knew her.

No one has ever been a candidate or an appointee, in the Reed district, who was better informed and well-spoken on school matters than Marilyn Steinau and we trust that this election which she "won" will actually win her a place on the school board the next time there is a vacancy.

Some nights later the cavalier invited an old university chum to dinner. The food was ghastly. "What's gone wrong around here, old chap?" inquired the chum testily. "You never use to be satisfied with food like this."

Schools Were Different Then, Do Students Of Today Know It?

This is Public Schools Week —which turns me to thinking about those grand old days, "the best years of your life."

The school was a great solid red brick structure with a concrete basement and two stories above it. The rooms were light, with windows almost to the ceiling—but the corridors had a permanent dreariness about them, almost unbroken by a glimpse of the outdoors.

The basement held the homemaking and shop rooms. They were lighted by small windows at foot level of the surrounding playground. It was usually warm and dry, being blessed with central heating.

AS A KID, I didn't think much, good or bad, about that building. But it contributed to the one, overwhelming memory I now have, looking back at grade school days, and most of high school:

I was bored.

I walked inside and outside of buildings and classrooms in the Novato Unified and San Jose School Districts. There is a stimulating excitement in the very fact these buildings are generally surrounded by grass, open directly to the outdoors and contain colors, fabrics, plastic wallpapers, designs which are direct, uncluttered, bright, sometimes stark. And not always lovely, perhaps.

But I doubt that the kids realize it now. Maybe later.

BUT THE BUILDING only contributes. The boredom came from the teachers and from classes we sat through from morning to afternoon.

The teachers who woke us from our lethargy were hard-nosed, hard minded ones who had something to say and a desire to have someone understand it. There were only five of them from kindergarten through high school.

They generally had some things in common—a sense of humor which showed often in some, almost never in others. A strict class discipline (they had no time to waste and knew it). Imagination in presentation, whether using only words, or occasionally gimcracks, models, drawings to bring home the message. A knowledge of their subject and a seeming liking for it.

A PHYSICAL hardiness which made it possible to pour on the work, correct all the papers, spend extra hours making sure a student did it right. The guts to give out a lousy mark when it was deserved.

The funny thing was that we, as students, knew at the time who the "good teachers" were (as differentiated from teachers who could be conned out of anything). Not everyone liked those teachers, but there always was a note of respect in their dislike.

In the years from kindergarten through high school, the schools I attended had in them only seven teachers under 35, four of them gym teachers. They were no more nor less stimulating than the others who ranged up to 60 plus years.

THERE IS OFTEN a youthfulness in teachers of today which still surprises me. It goes with the youthful lines of the buildings.

But youth and newness is no guarantee that they won't turn out a generation of bored students who will shy from the work of the mind.

And I wonder if the schoolroom seats are still too small and as hard as they used to be?

West Makes Gains In Kennedy Talks With Adenauer, Macmillan

WASHINGTON— President Kenendy's summit conferences with Prime iMnister Macmillan and Chancellor Adenauer are producing more results than appear on the surface.

The communiques have seemed rather empty because these meetings are not negotitations; they are consultations—explorations of each other's thinking.

The dividends from these meetings are not apparent in the communiques — but in future action.

These significant dividends already flow from the Kennedy-Macmillon and the Kennedy-Adenauer conferences:

1—THE TWO SENIOR Allied leaders have established a relationship of trust and candor with the new President of the United States. While their personal relationship does not have the comradely intimacy as prevailed with Eisenhower, it is evident that Kennedy won his spurs with the elder Allied statesmen and that the three can work together easily and cordially.

2—British Prime Minister Macmillan is determined to heal the menacing economic rift between the European Common Market (led by France and Germany) and the Outer Seven (led by Britain herself). It now appears probable that Britain's way of ending this trade threat to European unity will be a dramatic and historic turn in British policy—an offer to join the Common Market. President Kennedy made it clear that the U. S. would welcome this step as the most valuable contribution Britain could make to strengthening all of Western Europe.

3—GERMAN CHANCELLOR Adenauer was profoundly reassured by Kennedy's word that the U. S. would, if anything, increase military support for NATO and has no intention of withdrawing a single soldier from Europe. In the economic field, both Adenauer and Macmillan made it clear that their governments will devote to the aid of underdeveloped countries the same amount of their resources as does the U. S.

Of these three developments the most hopeful gain for the West is the prospect that Britain will be joining the European Common Market.

This is not an easy decision and the British government would be taking a bold and courageous action. Not that it would be against British interests, but it will be a reversal of a long British tradition. Britain has long kept detached from the continent and, in the main, has played a balance-of-power role between France and Germany, lest either get too strong.

But a new British policy is needed to fit new events. It is now in Britain's interest to help tie West Germany into the European community. The need is to pool and expand the strength of Europe as an economic entity and to develop a political federation to match this economic integration.

This is what Britain is now at the point of deciding and there can be no doubt that the Macmillon-Kennedy talks contributed to that end.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S meeting with Gen. de Gaulle in Paris will be far more complex and uncertain. It may not turn out well at all.

At a time when Macmillon, Adenauer, and Kennedy are acting to strengthen NATO, President de Gaulle for various reasons withdraws military forces from the NATO command, demands unilateral control of nuclear weapons on French soil.

NATO cannot be made to contribute more to France than France contributes to NATO. It is in these circumstances that Kennedy faces his severest test in personal diplomacy when he goes to Paris next month.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

You Just Can't Throw Away Long-Treasured Friends

An editor's mail is varied. It is well known that we have large wastepaper baskets and small filing cabinets.

We received the other day, an unusual bit of mail. It was an envelope mailed from Fairfax with no return address nor indication as to its sender. It had no letter in it, merely 11 clippings from newspapers, magazines and advertisements.

All of them were yellowed with age, worn from many foldings and, in some instances, Scotch taped together after they had been worn apart.

There are a poem "Oh, To Be In England—" clipped from the poetry section of a 1925 Literary Digest. And a poem "The Village School Teacher" with apologies to Longfellow, which started out like this:

Under the spreading schoolhouse roof,
The village teacher stands
With chalk dust smeared all o'er her face
And ink upon her hands.
With fire and lightning in her eyes
As order she demands.

There were two clippings from the letters column of the Chronicle, both praising Herbert Hoover. A Prudence Penny column answered a reader's request for "A Prayer For Homemakers."

Edgar A. Guest's "The Human Puzzle" was printed on the back of the business card of a San Francisco firm selling powdered soap dispensers.

There was a picture and news report from the Examiner of June 11, 1928, telling of a Piedmont man who invented a device which rolled automobiles sideways into parallel parking spaces. And there was a 1928 Literary Digest poem "Gjoa—To Amundsen" about the explorer and his tiny ship, now in Golden Gate Park.

The last three items also were poems: "Growing Older," a tribute to the 50th New York Cavalry; "Law Of Life," that man must battle to achieve a full life, and "If" with apologies to Kipling, which started: "If you can keep your hair when all about you are shearing theirs and wanting you to, too, . . . "

We'd say some elderly lady had come upon her treasures and couldn't bear to throw them away.

Neither could we; we filed them.

But a new British policy is needed to fit new events. It is now in Britain's interest to help tie West Germany into the European community. The need is to pool and expand the strength of Europe as an economic entity and to develop a political federation to match this economic integration.

This is what Britain is now at the point of deciding and there can be no doubt that the Macmillon-Kennedy talks contributed to that end.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY'S meeting with Gen. de Gaulle in Paris will be far more complex and uncertain. It may not turn out well at all.

At a time when Macmillon, Adenauer, and Kennedy are acting to strengthen NATO, President de Gaulle for various reasons withdraws military forces from the NATO command, demands unilateral control of nuclear weapons on French soil.

NATO cannot be made to contribute more to France than France contributes to NATO. It is in these icrcumstances that Kennedy faces his severest test in personal diplomacy when he goes to Paris next month.

FIVE HURT IN THIS CRASH—A Santa Rosa minister and his passenger and a Novato woman and her two children were injured in this smash-up at Highway 101 and Grant Avenue, Novato, at 2:40 p.m. yesterday. The minister was in the car in foreground; the Novato family, in the station wagon.

5 Hurt As Car Passes Stop Light In Novato

A Santa Rosa minister drove through a red light on Highway 101 in Novato yesterday afternoon and smashed into the side of another vehicle, injuring himself and four others.

Rev. Martin Paul Bohnet, 72, a non-sectarian pastor, was traveling south at 2:40 p.m. He told the California Highway patrol that a car ahead of him "jumped the light" at Grant Avenue and in attempting to follow through, his sedan smashed into the side of a westbound station wagon driven by Mrs. Marjorie J. Garzoli, 37, of 618 Atherton Avenue, Novato.

Treated at Novato Hospital were Bohnet, a passenger, Mrs. Louise Plush, 49, of Hood River, Ore.; Mrs. Garzoli and her two children, Richard, 7, and Judi, 8.

Bohnet was in good condition today with a scalp cut and possible right shoulder fracture. Mrs. Plush was being held for observation but without indication of serious injuries.

Mrs. Garzoli was treated for a small face cut, Judi received treatment for a cut on the cheek, and Richard had a check-up but had suffered only minor harm.

Kennedy Father's Note To FDR Is Revealed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph P. Kennedy, father of President Kennedy and U.S. ambassador to London in 1938-40, advised President Franklin D. Roosevelt in September 1940 that Britain had lost World War II, a Nazi German document alleged.

A German Embassy message to Berlin said Kennedy "warned the president urgently not to take irreparable steps. England was finished (completely through), and the U.S.A. would have to pay the bill."

Another message from the embassy in Washington the next month told Berlin that Nazi diplomats hoped Charles A. Lindbergh, the aviator, could counter-balance Roosevelt's efforts to prepare the United States for entry into the war.

Both documents are among German archives now being released by the State Department.

The message purporting to give Ambassador Kennedy's views was marked "top secret" and was signed by Hans Thomsen, charge de'affaires in the Washington embassy. A footnote in the volume released by the State Department said the words "completely through" were in parentheses in English in the German original.

As for where his information originated, Thomsen wrote:

"Source: The reliable informant known to you."

Kennedy, according to the German message, reported in a telegram received by Roosevelt Sept. 27, 1940, that British Prime Minister Winston Churchill was severely and publicly criticized in England and that Greece, Yugoslavia and Turkey "would seek to join the Axis because England no longer impressed them."

San Rafael Man Buys Hub Jewelry Firm

William J. Peters, proprietor of Will G. Peters Jewelers at 615 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, announced today that he has sold his business to Harold G. Harnell, who operates a watch repair shop at 846 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

The San Anselmo jewelry firm was founded by Peters' father in 1930 and has been carried on by the son since 1953.

He said he and his family expect to move to Apple Valley, where he has purchased property and will engage in real estate business with the Apple Valley Building and Development Co.

Harnell has been at his San Rafael location more than three years. He was previously with Rafael Jewelers for 11 years. He expects to take possession of the San Anselmo store about May 1 and will change the name to Harnell Jewelers. The San Rafael shop will be discontinued.

Awards Won In County 4-H Field Day

Twelve participants in the annual Marin County 4-H Field Day recreation and rural arts contest won gold certificates Saturday at the Hill School in Novato.

They will represent the county at the regional field day May 20 at the University of California at Davis.

Miller Asks Vote Against Gate Proposal

Rep. Clement W. Miller today urged that the California State Legislature reject Senate Bill 853, which would turn over control of the Golden Gate Bridge to the proposed Golden Gate Transportation Commission.

Declared Miller: "It would be a shocking breach of faith to take the bridge away from the people of the north coast who bonded themselves for 35 million dollars 25 years ago to finance the bridge . . .

"It is far too important to turn over to an authority that is unreachable, that is not responsible to anyone and which would likely become dictatorial and arbitrary without adequate checks on its conduct."

Alto Rezoning Opposition Asking Reconsideration

Representatives of five groups opposing Alto Bowl rezoning will attend tonight's meeting of the Mill Valley Planning Commission to ask the planners to reconsider their stand on the matter.

The groups met Saturday to make plans to seek further support to prevent the 200 acres from being rezoned from single family to apartment.

The Mill Valley Planning Commission, which will meet at 8 p.m. today, has gone on record as not being opposed to rezoning but that it is concerned about the traffic situation rezoning might cause.

Representatives will go before the Corte Madera Planning Commission Thursday to ask for its support. They will also continue to gather ammunition for the meeting with the Marin County Planning Commission May 15.

Rezoning is sought by the Marin Capital Co.

At the meeting Saturday were members of the Alto District Assn., Enchanted Knolls Home Owners Assn., Sutton Manor Home Owners Assn., Meadowsweet Improvement Assn., and the Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs.

Fire Houses Aid College Book Drive

Ten Marin County fire houses have been designated as collection points for College of Marin's books for Asian students drive, it was announced today by John Wasserman and Michael Kelly, student drive directors.

Fire houses in Sausalito, Mill Valley, Belvedere, Tiburon, Corte Madera, Larkspur, Kentfield, San Anselmo, Fairfax and San Rafael will accept the books. The drive will continue through next Sunday, after which books will be collected and turned over to the Asian Foundation for shipment overseas.

University, college and secondary level books published since 1945 in the social sciences, humanities and science fields are in particular demand. Works by standard authors published before 1945 are also needed, Wasserman said.

Payola Knowledge Denied In Trial Of Hub Disc Jockey

The business manager of Radio Station WMGM in New York City testified in court there yesterday that he had no idea disc jockey Peter C. Tripp of San Anselmo received money from record makers and distributors for plugging their discs.

Tripp, who lives at 312 San Francisco Boulevard, is now a disc jockey for Station KYA in San Francisco.

On trial for commercial bribery, he is accused of accepting money for plugging records, in addition to a salary that grew as high as $42,995 in 1959, the Associated Press reported.

WMGM business manager Morris Sher denied he knew Tripp had received the payments and denied he had consented to any such arrangement.

1st Day On Job —Burns Hands

Jacqueline Silva of 103 Filbert Street, Sausalito, worked her first day at a new job yesterday, and was in Marin General Hospital today as a result.

Miss Silva went to work for Elliott's Laundry and Cleaners at 107 Caledonia Street, Sausalito, yesterday morning as an apprentice presser. About 1 p.m., she caught both hands in a pressing machine.

She was reported in good condition today at the hospital, under treatment for second degree burns.

Larkspur Planners Meeting Tonight

Niels Schultz Jr. will seek architectural supervision from the Larkspur planning commission tonight for an eight-unit apartment house on lot 98 of Bon Air Subdivision Unit 5. Schultz will also request that a large parcel of two lots in the Bon Air Commercial District be split into three lots.

Contractor Trevor Jones will request a variance which will permit him to construct two homes on Sycamore Avenue near Holly Avenue with setbacks of only 15 feet instead of the required 25 feet.

The planner meet at 8 p.m. in City Hall.

Larkspur Closed Meeting Planned

Larkspur school district trustees will hold a closed, executive session tonight at 7:30 o'clock to discuss re-employment of 13 probationary teachers and five teachers eligible for tenure.

In the open meetings which will follow the executive session, Supt. Vaughn D. Seidel will ask authorization to employ one additional regular teacher and one summer school teacher. The 1961-62 school year calendar will be offered the board for approval.

New Staff Member At Ross Hospital

Dr. John C. Siemens, administrator of Ross General Hospital, today announced two additions to the hospital physical therapy staff.

Dr. Margaret Filante, clinical instructor at the University of California Medical Center and Kentfield resident, will be in charge of the physical therapy department, Siemens said.

Mrs. Adelaide P. Brady of Tiburon will continue as chief physio-therapist, Siemens said. New quarters for the expanded physical therapy department are in the area formerly occupied by the x-ray department. The latter department has been moved to the hospital's west wing.

Sanitary Board

The Homestead Valley Sanitary District Board will meet Friday at 8:30 p.m. at Homestead School, having postponed its meeting from last night because of Public Schools Week celebration at the school.

$45,000 Damage Suit Is Filed

Suit for $45,000 damages from an accident last May in Sonoma County was filed yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Betty L. Hammer of San Francisco asks that amount in general damages from Arthur James Hanson, a minor, and his father, Roy Hanson of 10 Pacheco Avenue, Fairfax.

The suit claims Mrs. Hammer suffered bruises and contusions, separation of the third and fourth ribs, cervical sprain, and is suffering migraine headaches as a result of the accident on May 7, 1960 at Greenhill and Occidental Roads.

In addition to the general damages specified, the suit asks for medical and court expenses yet to be determined.

Prowler On Roof Now In County Jail

A 60-year-old prowler, caught walking on the roof of James C. Richardson's home at 425 Bridgeway, Sausalito, at 2:20 a.m. yesterday by Richardson, was in county jail today charged with loitering, and prowling on another person's property at night.

Edward P. Cavanaugh, the prowler, could give police no reason for his wanderings. He said he is unemployed and has no place of residence.

ed with it, has encouraged rising expectations in many areas, but then not fulfilled them as a result, the communists are stepping in with their soak-the-rich-to-death program and finding much support in the generally poor, ex-colonial countries.

There are some countries that can't be saved from communism, this speaker said. We must not be too upset by this, he continued. Countries in trouble will continue to be problems for the communists too. We must avoid any hysterical action, such as that of the John Birch society.

We have a vast task of modernizing many nations, a slip in Indo-China, for example, might be bad if India and Mexico are made more secure. We should help governments wherever they are, but not the unreformed ones, he said.

Another speaker, expert on the Soviet Union, disagreed violently with the earlier speaker's assessment of allowing some nations to "go Red." He said that once in the communist power, all escape routes are closed. If a nation goes communist, it must be listed as lost.

But he balked at saying Cuba is lost, although the communists there are not going to be wished away by words. The communist system is not a permanent form of government for Cuba, he declared.

The first speaker also discussed the just-concluded United Nations general assembly session. He said that although the Soviet and the United Nations had "agreed to disagree" on disarmament, bi-lateral talks have been arranged on the matter for July and August.

The Congo situation has turned out happily thus far, he went on. Even the Russians have changed their approach since they realized they failed to destroy the United Nations over the Congo.

The communist attack on basic U.N. policies—and the organization itself—will continue, he predicted. The communist powers are attacking it on three fronts: demanding three-party operation of the secretary general's office; trying to strangle the U.N. by cutting off funds and making myriad counter-proposals aimed at preventing all action.

A real threat to U.N. existence, is in the refusal of nations— the Soviet Union and France, for example—to pay their share of the costs. If the U.N. is our best hope for peace, he said, it must be sustained.

A questioner asked the spokesman how to reconcile the "double life" of the United States in participating in intervention in Cuba while the ambassador to the U.N. talked against intervention.

The speaker said a communist beachhead in the western hemisphere is incompatible with the interests of the United States. It is different to explain, particularly to Latin Americans, our desire for social reforms and our concern over the infiltration of communism, he declared.

The next speaker, a Latin American expert, agreed heartily, the cardinal principle of our time, he said, is to favor needed social reform while repelling communist intervention.

The invasion of Cuba, however, has crystalized Latin American opinion, he went on. The other nations have been given a look into the world without the protection of the Monroe Doctrine and they haven't liked what they saw.

The support for us has showed up in every Latin American country, he declared. Demonstrations scheduled in most big cities to the south failed to come off. Only the hard-core communists appeared to demonstrate. The others refused and as a result, only in Uruguay was there anything like a common front demonstration.

The communist expert reviewed history of the United States' relations with the USSR. He pointed out that the leaders of the Soviet Union actually have a duel role. They are head of their state and also head of world communism. While there was only one dominant country, this dual role was not difficult. Now, with several strong communist countries, the question these men face is whether they should be looking out for the good of the Soviet Union or for the world program.

Industrialized Russia has much to lose in a nuclear war. Will they endanger that for world communism gains?

Recent signs are not encouraging, he went on. Laos is far from Russia. China last year challenged Soviet control successively. They have showed strong intention of backing Castro. They may turn East Germany over to the East Germans.

At the same time they are shifting their attack from general or limited war to national "liberation," particularly of those countries with social and political imbalance.

The United States must rise to this switch. We are facing our most treacherous and lethal struggle, he declared.

A fourth speaker yesterday afternoon discussed economic development of the under-developed countries. He pointed out this is not an extension of the Marshall Plan, but a new concept for countries that need growth, education and financial help to make them self-sustaining. At present they don't even know how.

The U.N. development and assistance committee is undertaking the coordination and information gathering part of this job to make all aid projects more effective, he said.

The utter complexity and utter involvement of the United States all over the world is sharply illustrated by the seriousness of the Algerian situation for us, the full responsibility we must take for our part in the Cuban invasion, the potentially critical Congo situation, the cease-fire negotiations over Laos, speakers said at the first session of the conference.

It is still too early to assess the news from Algiers, a top government spokesman declared. The revolt of the generals came as a surprise to both the French government and to ourselves. Our intelligence forces just didn't alert us, he declared.

The seriousness of the revolt is that at this time neither France nor the United States can afford to have the French government involved in a deep civil war. He went on. France is a key factor in NATO, both through communications as a geographically central member.

On the other hand, Algeria could become an important link between Europe and Africa. But if the generals succeed in setting up an independent country, or in seizing France and eliminating the de Gaulle policies for Algerian elections, settlement of the problem may be postponed for a long time.

The U. S. did help train and equip the men who invaded Cuba, a government official declared. But we did not order them to Cuba. They insisted that they go. But we must take the full responsibility for our part in the unsuccessful event. It was a miscalculation on our part and on that of the Cubans as to the response they would get from the people of Cuba, the strength of the Soviet-supplied arms and the speed with which they could be brought to bear against the invading forces.

However, the administration does not in any way share the blame for these miscalculations with the Eisenhower Administration, the speaker added. Former President Eisenhower was not consulted about Cuba after Jan. 20 until recently, and the responsibility belongs entirely with the present administration, he said. And the administration is not attemping to gloss over the seriousness of the experience.

There is little or no chance of the recognition of Red China by the U. S. and probably not much chance of its inclusion in the U.N., another spokesman said.

We don't recognize Communist China because of the requirements that nation has placed on such recognition. They've said we must get out of the Western Pacific, withdraw protection from Taiwan, and leave the entire Far East to the communists.

This we can't do, the spokesman said.

Communist China is still at war with the U.N., and has said it will not sit down with the U. S. while we are still in the Western Pacific.

Therefore, there is little chance of admission to the U.N. This does not mean, however, that we are not talking to the Red Chinese.

On the contrary, he continued, we probably have more relationships with them than many nations who recognize them.

He pointed to the 104th meeting on the ambassador level of diplomats going on in Warsaw.

Our missile and space ability was discussed by another government official who said the Russians today are well ahead of us in such things as a possible manned soft landing on the moon, the orbiting of Mars or other long range shots.

Our intensified program, however, should catch them in these fields by 1967 or '68. He said, sparked by a research and development program beamed up from 347 million dollars last year, to 621 million this year and a requested 919 million next year.

The people of this country, must however, decide if they want their government to launch a dual program of development of the present Saturn rockets to put men in orbit and the huge Nova rocket program which would speed our eventual ability to put a man on the moon.

FIVE HURT IN THIS CRASH—A Santa Rosa minister and his passenger and a Novato woman and her two children were injured in this smash-up at Highway 101 and Grant Avenue, Novato, at 2:40 p.m. yesterday. The minister was in the car in foreground; the Novato family, in the station wagon.

5 Hurt As Car Passes Stop Light In Novato

A Santa Rosa minister drove through a red light on Highway 101 in Novato yesterday afternoon and smashed into the side of another vehicle, injuring himself and four others.

Rev. Martin Paul Bohnet, 72, a non-sectarian pastor, was traveling south at 2:40 p.m. He told the California Highway patrol that a car ahead of him "jumped the light" at Grant Avenue and in attempting to follow through, his sedan smashed into the side of a westbound station wagon driven by Mrs. Marjorie J. Garzoli, 37, of 618 Atherton Avenue, Novato.

Treated at Novato Hospital were Bohnet, a passenger, Mrs. Louise Plush, 49, of Hood River, Ore.; Mrs. Garzoli and her two children, Richard, 7, and Judi, 8.

Bohnet was in good condition today with a scalp cut and possible right shoulder fracture. Mrs. Plush was being held for observation but without indication of serious injuries.

Mrs. Garzoli was treated for a small face cut, Judi received treatment for a cut on the cheek, and Richard had a check-up but had suffered only minor harm.

Kennedy Father's Note To FDR Is Revealed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph P. Kennedy, father of President Kennedy and U.S. ambassador to London in 1938-40, advised President Franklin D. Roosevelt in September 1940 that Britain had lost World War II, a Nazi German document alleged.

A German Embassy message to Berlin said Kennedy "warned the president urgently not to take irreparable steps. England was finished (completely through), and the U.S.A. would have to pay the bill."

Another message from the embassy in Washington the next month told Berlin that Nazi diplomats hoped Charles A. Lindbergh, the aviator, could counter-balance Roosevelt's efforts to prepare the United States for entry into the war.

Both documents are among German archives now being released by the State Department.

The message purporting to give Ambassador Kennedy's views was marked "top secret" and was signed by Hans Thomsen, charge de'affaires in the Washington embassy. A footnote in the volume released by the State Department said the words "completely through" were in parentheses in English in the German original.

As for where his information originated, Thomsen wrote:

"Source: The reliable informant known to you."

Kennedy, according to the German message, reported in a telegram received by Roosevelt Sept. 27, 1940, that British Prime Minister Winston Churchill was severely and publicly criticized in England and that Greece, Yugoslavia and Turkey "would seek to join the Axis because England no longer impressed them."

San Rafael Man Buys Hub Jewelry Firm

William J. Peters, proprietor of Will G. Peters Jewelers at 615 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, announced today that he has sold his business to Harold G. Harnell, who operates a watch repair shop at 846 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

The San Anselmo jewelry firm was founded by Peters' father in 1930 and has been carried on by the son since 1953.

He said he and his family expect to move to Apple Valley, where he has purchased property and will engage in real estate business with the Apple Valley Building and Development Co.

Harnell has been at his San Rafael location more than three years. He was previously with Rafael Jewelers for 11 years. He expects to take possession of the San Anselmo store about May 1 and will change the name to Harnell Jewelers. The San Rafael shop will be discontinued.

Awards Won In County 4-H Field Day

Twelve participants in the annual Marin County 4-H Field Day recreation and rural arts contest won gold certificates Saturday at the Hill School in Novato.

They will represent the county at the regional field day May 20 at the University of California at Davis.

Miller Asks Vote Against Gate Proposal

Rep. Clement W. Miller today urged that the California State Legislature reject Senate Bill 853, which would turn over control of the Golden Gate Bridge to the proposed Golden Gate Transportation Commission.

Declared Miller: "It would be a shocking breach of faith to take the bridge away from the people of the north coast who bonded themselves for 35 million dollars 25 years ago to finance the bridge . . .

Alto Rezoning Opposition Asking Reconsideration

Representatives of five groups opposing Alto Bowl rezoning will attend tonight's meeting of the Mill Valley Planning Commission to ask the planners to reconsider their stand on the matter.

The groups met Saturday to make plans to seek further support to prevent the 200 acres from being rezoned from single family to apartment.

The Mill Valley Planning Commission, which will meet at 8 p.m. today, has gone on record as not being opposed to rezoning but that it is concerned about the traffic situation rezoning might cause.

Representatives will go before the Corte Madera Planning Commission Thursday to ask for its support. They will also continue to gather ammunition for the meeting with the Marin County Planning Commission May 15.

Rezoning is sought by the Marin Capital Co.

At the meeting Saturday were members of the Alto District Assn., Enchanted Knolls Home Owners Assn., Sutton Manor Home Owners Assn., Meadowsweet Improvement Assn., and the Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs.

Fire Houses Aid College Book Drive

Ten Marin County fire houses have been designated as collection points for College of Marin's books for Asian students drive, it was announced today by John Wasserman and Michael Kelly, student drive directors.

Fire houses in Sausalito, Mill Valley, Belvedere, Tiburon, Corte Madera, Larkspur, Kentfield, San Anselmo, Fairfax and San Rafael will accept the books. The drive will continue through next Sunday, after which books will be collected and turned over to the Asian Foundation for shipment overseas.

University, college and secondary level books published since 1945 in the social sciences, humanities and science fields are in particular demand. Works by standard authors published before 1945 are also needed, Wasserman said.

Payola Knowledge Denied In Trial Of Hub Disc Jockey

The business manager of Radio Station WMGM in New York City testified in court there yesterday that he had no idea disc jockey Peter C. Tripp of San Anselmo received money from record makers and distributors for plugging their discs.

Tripp, who lives at 312 San Francisco Boulevard, is now a disc jockey for Station KYA in San Francisco.

On trial for commercial bribery, he is accused of accepting money for plugging records, in addition to a salary that grew as high as $42,995 in 1959, the Associated Press reported.

WMGM business manager Morris Sher denied he knew Tripp had received the payments and denied he had consented to any such arrangement.

The U.N. development and assistance committee is undertaking the coordination and information gathering part of this job to make all aid projects more effective, he said.

The utter complexity and utter involvement of the United States all over the world is sharply illustrated by the seriousness of the Algerian situation for us, the full responsibility we must take for our part in the Cuban invasion, the potentially critical Congo situation, the cease-fire negotiations over Laos, speakers said at the first session of the conference.

It is still too early to assess the news from Algiers, a top government spokesman declared. The revolt of the generals came as a surprise to both the French government and to ourselves. Our intelligence forces just didn't alert us, he declared.

The seriousness of the revolt is that at this time neither France nor the United States can afford to have the French government involved in a deep civil war. He went on. France is a key factor in NATO, both through communications as a geographically central member.

On the other hand, Algeria could become an important link between Europe and Africa. But if the generals succeed in setting up an independent country, or in seizing France and eliminating the de Gaulle policies for Algerian elections, settlement of the problem may be postponed for a long time.

The U. S. did help train and equip the men who invaded Cuba, a government official declared. But we did not order them to Cuba. They insisted that they go. But we must take the full responsibility for our part in the unsuccessful event. It was a miscalculation on our part and on that of the Cubans as to the response they would get from the people of Cuba, the strength of the Soviet-supplied arms and the speed with which they could be brought to bear against the invading forces.

However, the administration does not in any way share the blame for these miscalculations with the Eisenhower Administration, the speaker added. Former President Eisenhower was not consulted about Cuba after Jan. 20 until recently, and the responsibility belongs entirely with the present administration, he said. And the administration is not attemping to gloss over the seriousness of the experience.

There is little or no chance of the recognition of Red China by the U. S. and probably not much chance of its inclusion in the U.N., another spokesman said.

We don't recognize Communist China because of the requirements that nation has placed on such recognition. They've said we must get out of the Western Pacific, withdraw protection from Taiwan, and leave the entire Far East to the communists.

This we can't do, the spokesman said.

Communist China is still at war with the U.N., and has said it will not sit down with the U. S. while we are still in the Western Pacific.

Therefore, there is little chance of admission to the U.N. This does not mean, however, that we are not talking to the Red Chinese.

On the contrary, he continued, we probably have more relationships with them than many nations who recognize them.

He pointed to the 104th meeting on the ambassador level of diplomats going on in Warsaw.

Our missile and space ability was discussed by another government official who said the Russians today are well ahead of us in such things as a possible manned soft landing on the moon, the orbiting of Mars or other long range shots.

Our intensified program, however, should catch them in these fields by 1967 or '68. He said, sparked by a research and development program beamed up from 347 million dollars last year, to 621 million this year and a requested 919 million next year.

The people of this country, must however, decide if they want their government to launch a dual program of development of the present Saturn rockets to put men in orbit and the huge Nova rocket program which would speed our eventual ability to put a man on the moon.

1st Day On Job —Burns Hands

Jacqueline Silva of 103 Filbert Street, Sausalito, worked her first day at a new job yesterday, and was in Marin General Hospital today as a result.

Miss Silva went to work for Elliott's Laundry and Cleaners at 107 Caledonia Street, Sausalito, yesterday morning as an apprentice presser. About 1 p.m., she caught both hands in a pressing machine.

She was reported in good condition today at the hospital, under treatment for second degree burns.

Larkspur Planners Meeting Tonight

Niels Schultz Jr. will seek architectural supervision from the Larkspur planning commission tonight for an eight-unit apartment house on lot 98 of Bon Air Subdivision Unit 5. Schultz will also request that a large parcel of two lots in the Bon Air Commercial District be split into three lots.

Contractor Trevor Jones will request a variance which will permit him to construct two homes on Sycamore Avenue near Holly Avenue with setbacks of only 15 feet instead of the required 25 feet.

The planner meet at 8 p.m. in City Hall.

Larkspur Closed Meeting Planned

Larkspur school district trustees will hold a closed, executive session tonight at 7:30 o'clock to discuss re-employment of 13 probationary teachers and five teachers eligible for tenure.

In the open meetings which will follow the executive session, Supt. Vaughn D. Seidel will ask authorization to employ one additional regular teacher and one summer school teacher. The 1961-62 school year calendar will be offered the board for approval.

New Staff Member At Ross Hospital

Dr. John C. Siemens, administrator of Ross General Hospital, today announced two additions to the hospital physical therapy staff.

Dr. Margaret Filante, clinical instructor at the University of California Medical Center and Kentfield resident, will be in charge of the physical therapy department, Siemens said.

Also added to the staff is Wilkes L. Johnson, registered physical therapist of Novato.

Mrs. Adelaide P. Brady of Tiburon will continue as chief physio-therapist, Siemens said. New quarters for the expanded physical therapy department are in the area formerly occupied by the x-ray department. The latter department has been moved to the hospital's west wing.

Sanitary Board

The Homestead Valley Sanitary District Board will meet Friday at 8:30 p.m. at Homestead School, having postponed its meeting from last night because of Public Schools Week celebration at the school.

$45,000 Damage Suit Is Filed

Suit for $45,000 damages from an accident last May in Sonoma County was filed yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

Betty L. Hammer of San Francisco asks that amount in general damages from Arthur James Hanson, a minor, and his father, Roy Hanson of 10 Pacheco Avenue, Fairfax.

The suit claims Mrs. Hammer suffered bruises and contusions, separation of the third and fourth ribs, cervical sprain, and is suffering migraine headaches as a result of the accident on May 7, 1960 at Greenhill and Occidental Roads.

In addition to the general damages specified, the suit asks for medical and court expenses yet to be determined.

Prowler On Roof Now In County Jail

A 60-year-old prowler, caught walking on the roof of James C. Richardson's home at 425 Bridgeway, Sausalito, at 2:20 a.m. yesterday by Richardson, was in county jail today charged with loitering, and prowling on another person's property at night.

Edward P. Cavanaugh, the prowler, could give police no reason for his wanderings. He said he is unemployed and has no place of residence.

Giants Must Face L.A. Dodger Aces Tonight, Tomorrow

San Franciscans Pin Hopes On Jack Sanford, Mike McCormick

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It's only a two-game series and the Los Angeles Dodgers are leading with their ace pitcher tonight against the San Francisco Giants. It will be Don Drysdale (2-1) against the Giants' Jack Sanford (0-1).

HELD WORKOUT

The Dodgers are leading the National League by one full game and Manager Walt Alston wants to start on the first road trip in first place. He had the Dodgers out yesterday—an off-day on the schedule, for batting and fielding practice.

"The fellows seem to be in the groove now, and I want them to stay there," said Alston. "It's more important to get in some work right now than later. We have a couple of off days coming up on this road trip, and by that time we can use a day or so of rest. Right now we don't need it, so I brought 'em out yesterday."

Aside from the Giants, who are a good attraction in Los Angeles, the fans are anxious to see how Wally Moon fares against San Francisco pitching. Moon, who is leading just about all the hitting departments, has eight homers in 12 games. All were over the left field screen, quite an achievement for a left-hand batter.

But Moon has made a science of hitting just about any pitch with his inside-out swing to the far reaches of left field. He has hit high and low pitches and balls on the inside and outside of the plate.

HUTCHINSON QUOTE

Cincinnati manager Freddie Hutchinson, obviously down as the Reds lost three straight to the Dodgers last week, said that although Wally is a good hitter "he's not as good as he's been going—and he's been hitting mistakes."

"If you don't hit mistakes," Moon retorted, "you're not going to be doing much hitting. You certainly aren't going to hit the good ones over the fence."

The games tonight and tomorrow will both be televised in the Bay Area over station KTVU (Channel 2). Pre-game shows will begin at 7:30 p.m. with the game proper slated to start at 7:55.

Giants Off On First Road Trip, May Be The Makings Of The Club

CONNOLLY

Tonight the Giants start a 14-game road trip that will not bring them back to Candlestick Park until May 12 against Milwaukee.

They have two games with the L.A. Dodgers; three games at Milwaukee; three games at Philadelphia and three games at Pittsburgh.

That is quite a spread. And it's nice to know that the Giants are in good hands — those of Alvin Dark, rookie manager.

I think sometimes Alvin is a "roof job" for allowing his good hitters to hit with three balls and no strikes.

But that is a personal observation. At least Dark is playing to win. He's smart if hitting with 3 and 0 works, and dumb it it does not click. In his favor, however is the fact that he has been ordering the Giants to hit and run and they've been quite successful.

DARK, AS I figure him out, is game enough to sink with his own ship. By that I mean he will keep so-and-so on first base and so-and-so on second base, regardless.

But reading between the lines and observing some of the by-play, nobody is going to assure me that Eddie Bressoud is happy watching Jose Pagan replace him at shortstop.

And I think you'll agree with me that Don Blasingame isn't happy over subbing for a Texas Leaguer like Chuck Hiller.

There are rumors that Orlando Cepeda doesn't want any part of the outfield. And that Harvey Kuenn wants no part of the infield.

So with the censorship on tap, you have to admit there are two schools of thought on which to second guess the manager.

I DON'T mind admitting I'm second guessing Alvin Dark. But isn't Dark second guessing his players?

I think the Giants are strong in spots and weaker than a weak aspirin in other spots.

Down the middle, like second base and shortstop, they admittedly are weak. And that, in my opinion, is the heart of a ball club.

The Giants are short in catching and they aren't too strong in sub outfielders. And certainly they are not robust in what is commonly known as the bench.

SO WE start a 14-game series away from home. It may be the makings of the club. It may cement the entire outfit. It may bring the club back home with the players knowing one another and how one another feels.

I believe that some of the switches Dark has made as manager have been child-like. I think he is doing some of the things he does just to cross up his critics.

But I btlieve that Dark has been able to convince Horace Stoneham, owner of the club, that he is "thinking."

WHEN THE Giants and Dark come home from the 14-game road trip they'll be either a pennant contender or one like Bill Rigney had in 1960.

I'll always maintain that the Giants of 1961 have to be good or bad. They can't be partly good and partly bad. They are not that kind of a ball club.

Johnson Impressive In Stopping Von Clay

PHILADELHIA (AP) — Harold Johnson, fresh from a successful defense of his National Boxing Assn. light heavyweight championship, today found himself in the same old rut—waiting for Archie Moore.

Clay, 21, with a 13-3-2 record before the scheduled 15-rounder, never had a chance. Johnson, 32, veteran of 16 years in the ring, knocked him down once in the first round and three times in the second.

"He, Clay, is a good puncher but a very slow puncher," said Johnson. "I could see his left jab coming. I knew then all I had to do was let him lead that left and cross with my right and it wouldn't be long."

Where does Johnson go from here? He has to wait and see whether Moore, who is recognized as light heavy champ in New York, Massachusetts and Europe can make the weight for a title defense June 10—against Guilio Rinaldi. If Moore doesn't get down to 175—there is doubt he can—Johnson may substitute for him.

Fish Planting Delayed At Nicasio Reservoir

A revised fisheries management program for the Marin Municipal Water District's new Nicasio Reservoir has been worked out by the district and the State Department of Fish and Game.

A plant of 150,000 fingerling trout originally scheduled for this spring was canceled when it was learned that the copper sulfate treatment to be given the new reservoir to control algae would probably kill the fish.

The water district fears a major infestation of algae unless there is heavy application of the chemical during this first year water is impounded behind the new dam.

Under the revised plan, fingerling trout will be planted next year, if the algae problem can be resolved.

It's Battle Royal For Lead In N.L.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

At the start of the season, the National League managers predicted a five-team race with a sixth team, the Cincinnati Reds, having an outside chance. The league standings today make the pilots look like geniuses in the guessing department.

Only one game separates the first four teams after two weeks play. Another game separates the seventh-place Milwaukee Braves from the first-place Los Angeles Dodgers. San Francisco, St. Louis and Pittsburgh, the other three in the top-rated five, are tied for second place.

BRAVES BEATEN

In the only game played yesterday, Pittsburgh edged Milwaukee 7-6 to drop the Braves one game out of the cellar. To further illustrate the closeness of the National League race, had the Braves won, they would have bolted into second place.

Three games were played in the American League. Detroit's first place Tigers defeated the New York Yankees 4-3, Cleveland thrashed Baltimore 5-1 and Minnesota beat Kansas City 10-6.

Frank Lary pitched the Detroit win over the Yanks, his 24th victory against but eight defeats in hurling assignments against the New Yorkers.

Every National League club can change its position today. San Francisco would take over first place by beating Los Angeles. St. Louis could share the top rung provided it defeats Milwaukee and the Dodgers lose.

BUCS IN BID

Pittsburgh, by beating Philadelphia tonight also could stake a first-place claim, if the Giants beat the Dodgers. The other game pits Chicago against Cincinnati, currently tied for fifth place.

Bob Friend won his third without a defeat for the Pirates but he needed ninth inning help from Clem Labine. The veteran righthander allowed only five hits through eight innings and went into the final frame leading 7-4.

Wes Covington's single, an error and a sacrifice produced one Milwaukee run. Friend got John Demerit to fly out but when Johnny Logan singled in a run, Manager Danny Murtaugh summoned Labine from the bullpen. The sinker ball specialist got Roy McMillan on a grounder to end the game.

Better Start Getting Ready Now For The Opening Of Trout Season

STEVENS

I just returned home from a short visit with a buddy of mine, Bob Johnson. I knew he would be home because of the stormy weather (it was Sunday afternoon), and I found Bob in the basement of his home intent on preparations for the opening of trout season next Saturday.

Strung the full length of his basement were two tapered fly lines that Bob had just worked over. His hands were still stained with the line dressing he had used on the lines. On a work bench he had laid out an assortment of leaders, lures, spinners and small boxes of artificial flies. His two reels had been cleaned and greased and his rods were hanging on hooks.

Wise guy, my buddy. He wasn't taking any chances of a line snapping or a weakened leader breaking. He had tested each piece of equipment. When he found, by snapping a line between his hands, that it "punged" instead of "pinged," he cut off and threw away the dead line. And he was preparing to splice a torpedo taper onto one of the lines as I left him.

There will be a flock of other "season-openers" who will be doing or have done as Bob was doing. And, sadly, there will be, as always, a flock of careless hombres who will go out unprepared. Some of them will tell of the big fish that hit and broke the leader or line, when actually it was a small fish on a weakened leader or a dead line end.

Another bit of carelessness that will swell the "funds from fines" will be the forgetting of the necessary stamps on the basic fishing license. Each year the greatest number of law violations are credited to fishing without the proper license. Remember two stamps are required to take trout. And also bear in mind that the purchase of a license doesn't give you permission to tresspass on private property without permission from the owner or person in control of the land.

Getting back to the license subject: Don't wait until the last minute to buy yours. If history repeats itself, a great many of the license handlers will be out of licenses a day or two before Saturday. Play safe and get yours today.

The limit generally is 10 trout or salmon in combination —but not more than 10 pounds and one fish. However, at least three trout and salmon in combination may be taken and possessed, regardless of the weight.

The concensus among old timers is that it will be good business not to delay the initial trip after trout too long. Because of low water conditions, many of the favorite streams will be past their prime within a short period. It isn't too great an exaggeration to say that, generally, this year the stream conditions right now are about as they ordinarily would be a month from now.

The Marin lakes, Merced, Pillsbury and Mendocino will almost certainly furnish plenty of action and plenty of fish the coming weekend.

If you happen to fancy lake and reservoir fishing not too far away from home, here is a list of such spots as will be stocked with catchables for the opening:

MARIN COUNTY

Lagunitas Lake, near Fairfax. Closed Sundays; permit needed.

OTHER AREAS

Napa County, Conn Creek, below Lake Hennessey. St. Helena Creek on Highway 29 about nine miles north of Calistoga.

Lake County, Anderson Creek, near Middletown; Big Canyon Creek, north of Middletown; Kelsey Creek, south of Kelseyville; Lake Pillsbury, east of Ukiah via Potter Valley; St. Helena Creek, south of Middletown, along Highway 29; Upper Blue Lake, east of Ukiah, along Highway 20.

Monterey County, Arroyo Seco Upper, at Santa Lucia Memorial Camp, 20 miles southwest of King City via Arroyo Seco Canyon, Big Sur River, in Pfeiffer State Park via Highway 1; Los Padres Reservation, Carmel Valley road via Cachagua Road; Nacimiento River, near Nacimiento campground, 30 miles west of King City. No fishing allowed on Hunter Liggett Military Reservation.

Santa Clara County, Llagas (Chesbro) Reservoir, about two miles west of Morgan Hill; Uvas Creek Reservation; Coyote River, east of Morgan Hill, one and one-half mile area below Anderson Dam.

San Mateo County, Gazos Creek, about two miles south of Pigeon Point Lighthouse; Pescadero Creek, in Portola State Park and San Mateo County Memorial Park; Upper Beab Hollow Lake, near Pescadero off Coast Highway.

Hebert Bests Venturi In Golf Playoff

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Jay Hebert moved on to the Texas Open today after winning $7,000 in a sudden-death playoff with Ken Venturi in the Houston Classic to move up to fifth place among golf's 1961 money winners.

Hebert, Lafayette, La., native, sank an eight-foot birdie putt to beat Venturi after the Californian had tied an 18-hole playoff by picking up three strokes on the last four holes.

Venturi won $3,600 for his second-place finish to move up to seventh place among money winners. Tournament officials said each player would get at least $600 more as their part of yesterday's gate.

Hebert arrived in Houston in 17th place on the money list. He left with an official PGA total of $14,457.50 for the year. Venturi now has won $13,767.50.

Venturi's 18-hole finish reversed Sunday's final round of the 72-hole tournament. Hebert picked up five strokes on the last five holes Sunday to tie Venturi at 276 and send the Classic into its third straight playoff.

Both drove into the rough on the sudden death hole but recovered well and made the green. Venturi's drive hit a spectator, but no serious damage was done.

Hebert chipped two feet inside Venturi—about eight feet from the cup—and watched Ken miss his birdie putt.

Hebert took three practice swings, shifted his feet twice and sent the ball into the cup to end the classic's first sudden death playoff.

Basilio Hangs Up Gloves

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Carmen Basilio, his battle-marked face showing the effects of almost 13 years in the ring, started a new life as a gentleman farmer today.

The craggy-jawed former world welterweight and middleweight champion announced last night that he was finished with boxing for good.

"Right now," said the 34-year-old Basilio, "I'm going to rest for about a week, think things over and take care of my apple trees."

Basilio took a bad beating from Paul Pender last Saturday in Boston. Pender not only won a one-sided decision, but had Basilio off his feet for the first time in his career.

Few Surprises In Cal Fish-Game Proposals

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Fish and Game Commission, at a public meeting, has adopted its determinations for hunting regulations for 1961, with a few surprises but nothing earth-shaking.

This was the first time determinations were reached in an open meeting as this previously had been the one secret meeting held by commissioners. Actually, determinations were reached via conference telephone calls in some cases when there was little controversy.

Thee switch to public determination meetings — triggered by a bill in the legislature which would require such action—probably is a good step, even though some commissioners claim it will not permit as much freedom and frankness of discussion as they'd like.

AUG. 5 TO SEPT. 24

As for the determinations, the commission settled on an Aug. 5-Sept. 24 early deer hunting season and a Sept. 23-Nov. 5 late season. One exception was District 1¾, the four northeastern counties, where the season will end Oct. 15.

The commission also proposed two closures—76 square miles in the Telephone Flat area of Devil's Garden in Modoc County and 40 square miles in the Three Sister area of Siskiyou County. Commissioner Henry Clineschmidt of Redding had proposed several more closures. However, there was a fear there was not sufficient feed in the closure areas to support the deer.

The commission declined to propose any restriction in 1¾ to the taking of three-pointers or better or only. It eliminated any two-buck areas in the late season. Previously, parts of Tehama, Siskiyou and Shasta counties had two-buck limits. The bag limit in the early coastal season will remain at two bucks.

The commission proposed the regular archery seasons in advance of the regular seasons. This will remove the necessity for action in the legislature on AB355 by Assemblyman John Williamson (D-Bakersfield) which would have provided the same thing. Despite the fact Williamson's bill merely was extending the present law, it had caused a lot of controversy and mail-in opposition to the measure — mainly from anti-hunters and humane groups—had been heavy.

The commission proposed a northern California pheasant season from Nov. 18-27. It proposed to eliminate the bonus limits on days after the opening weekend, providing for a straight two-bird-a-day limit, 10 per season. In recent years, a four-bird-a-day limit had been in effect after the first weekend.

Marin Yachtsmen Lose Baseball Tilt To Berkeley

A sea-going perpetual trophy —crossed swabs over a bucket, mounted on a mahogany plaque—was lost Sunday by the Marin Yacht Club to the Berkeley Yacht Club at their 10th annual joint picnic and baseball game held at Paradise Cove.

Some 40 couples from the two clubs with their families traveled by boat and car to the rendezvous—to picnic and take part in or observe the diamond struggle of the once-a-year ball and bat sailors.

The seven-inning game was won by Berkeley, 18 to 5. Each team has now won five games. Marin's commodore, Stanley D. Ulrich of San Rafael has been invited to a celebration on May 20 at the Berkeley Y. C. to present the trophy—in the possession of Marin for the last three years—and receive a cactus-lined skipper's cap in exchange.

Among the Marin Club members present were the William G. Tolands, George Gestors, Stanley D. Ulrich and Robert Walkers of San Rafael; Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Cooper of San Francisco and the Richard S. Lowrys of Piedmont.

Administration Plans More Economic Aid

Experts Believe Business Will Regain Peak

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration is planning additional aid for the economy even though some government experts now expect business to regain its pre-recession peak by early summer.

The new moves will be designed to help ensure a solid recovery and a broader attack on the persistent unemployment problem. They will grow out of a full-scale economic review now being directed by Dr. Walter Heller, chairman of President Kennedy's Council of Economic Advisers.

RESULTS SOON

Kennedy told his Friday news conference that the results will be made public soon.

There is a widespread feeling among the officials involved that further steps will be required if the administration's economic goals are to be achieved. Although most agree that the recession reached a basic turning point last month, they are fearful the upturn might run out of steam unless given an additional boost.

Initially at least, the 1961 recovery also may be quite strong. Some economists now believe the gross national product GNP—the value of all goods and services produced—may advance to an annual rate of about $505 billion in the current April-June quarter.

This would restore the GNP to the record rate achieved a year ago. In the January-March quarter, according to preliminary estimates, it dropped $4 billion to a recession low of $499.5 billion.

BROAD HINT

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon told a news conference yesterday that a definite attack must be mounted against structural unemployment—joblessness caused by automation and the steady decline in such industries as coal mining.

He gave a broad hint that this would be one result of the Heller review.

Chairman William McChesney Martin of the Federal Reserve Board has repeatedly emphasized the seriousness of structural unemployment. Suggested remedies have included the retraining of displaced workers and subsidies to help them move to communities where they could get work.

Honesty Pays, Boy Finds — $2 Worth

He found a wallet Sunday morning at Machin and Grant Avenues in Novato and turned it over to police. The owner, Harry T. Smiley of 833 Wilmac Avenue, hadn't even missed it, nor the $7 it contained. He gave James, of 1591 Mill Avenue, a $2 reward.

Insurance Fraud Revealed

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The FBI hunted seven more persons today after arresting a score of civilians and servicemen on charges of perpetrating a $14.5-million insurance swindle.

Twenty persons were arrested in six states yesterday, and the FBI said about 1,700 fraudulent authorizations for insurance premium allotments had been discovered at the Army Finance Center here. The center processes payrolls for the entire Army.

Allan Gillies, FBI special agent said the forged authorizations were slipped past finance officers at Ft. Jackson, S. C., and Ft. Dix, N. J.

The fraud involved forging soldier's names and serial numbers to an Army form authorizing deduction of allotments for families, insurance premiums and other purposes.

WORLD TRADE WEEK SLATED

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President John F. Kennedy has proclaimed the week beginning May 21, as World Trade Week.

His proclamation yesterday said a basic U. S. goal is the development of an international economic environment to foster material well being and political independence for all free people.

Sukarno Warns Against Imperialism

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Sukarno of neutralist Indonesia joined President John F. Kennedy today in a warning to new nations to be alert against subversion and imperialism.

The two men issued a joint statement shortly after Sukarno paid a farewell call on Kennedy and flew in a helicopter from the White House lawn to his waiting jet transport plane at nearby Andrews Air Force Base. His next stop is Mexico.

The communique made no direct reference to the New Guinea issue, which Subandrio said occupied a considerable part of the three hours of Kennedy-Sukarno talks yesterday.

It also did not contain the strong declaration against colonialism which the Indonesians had sought.

Administration Plans More Economic Aid

Experts Believe Business Will Regain Peak

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration is planning additional aid for the economy even though some government experts now expect business to regain its pre-recession peak by early summer.

The new moves will be designed to help ensure a solid recovery and a broader attack on the persistent unemployment problem. They will grow out of a full-scale economic review now being directed by Dr. Walter Heller, chairman of President Kennedy's Council of Economic Advisers.

RESULTS SOON

Kennedy told his Friday news conference that the results will be made public soon.

There is a widespread feeling among the officials involved that further steps will be required if the administration's economic goals are to be achieved. Although most agree that the recession reached a basic turning point last month, they are fearful the upturn might run out of steam unless given an additional boost.

The recovery after the 1958 recession was quite sharp at the start but, in the view of most experts, ended prematurely.

Initially at least, the 1961 recovery also may be quite strong. Some economists now believe the gross national product GNP—the value of all goods and services produced—may advance to an annual rate of about $505 billion in the current April-June quarter.

This would restore the GNP to the record rate achieved a year ago. In the January-March quarter, according to preliminary estimates, it dropped $4 billion to a recession low of $499.5 billion.

BROAD HINT

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon told a news conference yesterday that a definite attack must be mounted against structural unemployment—joblessness caused by automation and the steady decline in such industries as coal mining.

He gave a broad hint that this would be one result of the Heller review.

Chairman William McChesney Martin of the Federal Reserve Board has repeatedly emphasized the seriousness of structural unemployment. Suggested remedies have included the retraining of displaced workers and subsidies to help them move to communities where they could get work.

Sausalito Yacht Auxiliary Plans 'Spring Rigging' Show, Dinner

"Spring Riging" is the theme for the fashion show and dinner dance being launched by the Sausalito Yacht Club Auxiliary on Saturday, May 20 at the clubhouse.

A select display of casual attire for ladies and gentlemen will be provided by San Rafael and Sausalito specialty shops.

Models enhancing natty "rigging" will be Fred Crawford, John Sweeney, Mesdames Roy Ashley, Peter Fromhagen, John Ward, William Whitaker, Bruce Williams and Messrs. and Mesdames Leonard Delmas, John Koenig Jr. and Neil Munro. Many fellow yachtsmen and their first mates are anticipating a hilarious evening watching these seasoned helmsmen (some of whom are past commodores) walk the 'fashion' plank. The Hearst Regatta sailed in a 40-knot zephyr may prove to be less formidable to some than a spotlighted ramp and cheering audience. Safety vests, foul weather gear and inflatable life rafts will be available in case of an emergency "abandon ship" appears imminent.

Paul Speegle, well known Bay Area columnist, will be master of the microphone and witty comment. A dinner preceding the show will be followed with music by a local band for late evening dancing.

Mrs. Leonard Delmas, chief detail co-ordinator with assistance from Mrs. Peter Fromhagen, is rehearsing the models, and Mrs. Richard Hart has planned nautical decor in keeping with the show theme. Mrs. Robert Flowerman of Corte Madera is in charge of cuisine, and Mrs. Marshall Foster of Tiburon is accepting reservations from members and guests.

At the recent auxiliary membership meeting, President Mrs. William New discussed the great popularity and progress of sailing classes organized recently for women and directed by Mrs. Grove Nooney of Sausalito. Several boats have been donated for use during some of these instructive sessions, which include beginning, intermediate, advanced and special interest groups, and are open to all women members and guests. Participation can be arranged by contacting Mrs. Nooney.

Contract bridge lessons, explained with competence by Mrs. Carl Lischeske of Mill Valley, asisted by Mrs. Russell Wallace and Mrs. Willem Van Lienden, take place on the first and third Thursday evenings of each month at the clubhouse. Men and women members and their guests are welcome to attend.

Sunny Styles For Summer Promenaded At Guild Show

Two hundred members and guests of the Madera Guild of Sunny Hills gathered at Bob's of Marin recently for an Informally Yours fashion luncheon benefit with proceeds of the affair going toward the Guild's Jewel Box Booth, which their members will staff at the annual Grape Festival.

Mrs. James Tonge was chairman of the highly successful event and Sara Campbell supervised and organized the fashion showing of styles from a San Rafael women's apparel shop.

Modeling "Sun 'n Shade Silhouettes" at the Madera Guild's luncheon were Mannequin League of Marin members and showing sunny styles for Sunny Hills were:

Mrs. John Hackney Jr. pert and patio attired in a white hop sacking frock with fitted bodice of pink polka dot and the very full skirt adorned with two huge patch pockets. A short jacket completed the ensemble.

Mrs. Richard Evans glamorously gowned in royal blue chiffon. The dress a sheath with the blouse top in vivid multicolor blues, also of silk chiffon.

Mrs. William Donohoe attractively attired in a linen dress. The paprika outfit featured a dropped waistline and permanently pleated skirt with a square neckline, the better to show summer pastel jewelry.

Mrs. Harding McPhun petite and perfectly styled in a Susan Thomas design. The turquoise frock has an overlay of white eyelet polished cotton with an extremely full skirt.

Mrs. George Coburn striking in a sheath of beige with a matching print coat, three quarter of length and sporting a large face-framing collar.

On Wednesday, May 3, Bob's of Marin will welcome the Friends of Arequipa for fashions Informally Yours with luncheon at 12:30 o'clock.

Reservation for the May 3 style-show-luncheon to benefit Friends of Arequipa, which is open to the public, may be made with Bob's of Marin.

Marin County Day School Readies For Annual Kite Day

Take a bright spring day with a good breeze, rolling green hills, blue sky and a whole bunch of kids and what do you do with it all? Naturally, you fly kites.

That's what the children, teachers and parents of Marin Country Day School will be doing next Saturday at the school on Paradise Drive.

This will be the fourth annual Kite Day since the school opened five years ago.

Ben Chamberlain, who has served the school in many capacities over the past five years, came to school one spring day that first year, and said, "Let's go fly kites," and that's how it all started.

For the past two weeks children in all grades have been building kites under the supervision of Charles Maurice, art teacher. Along with the traditional bow kites and box variety, there are butterfly kites and kites with six or eight sides and even a tetrahedron, which is "sort of three-dimensional," according to Mr. Maurice.

In the matter of color and design the imagination has no limitations. There are blue and green and purple kites, orange and yellow kites with Picasso faces, striped kites, and even polka-dot kites.

From the Parents' Group Mrs. C. J. Lennihan III and Mrs. E. Gould Ingram are co-chairmen for Kite Day. Assisting them are Edward Towne and Mesdames Robert Bastian, Alex Tarics, Roger Dakin, Eugene Berman, Allan Littman, Donald Westerbeke, Edmund Nash, Alexander Imlay and Elliott Brown.

Phi Mu Council To Fete Seniors

The Bay Area Council of Phi Mu Sorority will give an initiation luncheon and swim party in honor of the graduating seniors from the Eta Alpha Chapter of Phi Mu at the University of Cailfornia at Berkeley and the Eta Theta Chapter at San Jose State on Saturday, April 29, at the home of Mrs. V. H. Montgomery, 26 Lagoon Road, Belvedere.

Swimming and sailing will begin at 11 a.m. Immediately following the 1:30 p.m. luncheon, the seniors will be initiated into the alumnae groups by the Bay Area Council President, Mrs. Alan Kelt of Contra Costa.

All alumnae from the Berkeley-East Bay, Marin, Contra Costa, Orinda-Lafayette, Palo Alto, San Francisco-Peninsula, Santa Clara Valley and University chapters have been invited to attend.

Girl Scout Staff Attends Conclave

Staff members of the Marin Girl Scout Council will attend the All Staff Conference, April 26 and 27, at Asilomar. Conducted by Regional Director Mrs. Margaret Brownley and her staff, the conference will include a discussion of trends in Girl Scouting.

Miss Dorothy Erthle, executive director, Miss Lois Little, Mrs. Lyman Emerson and Mrs. Dorothy Trenam from Marin Council will attend the conference, which will include staff members from the northern section of RegionXII.

Following the All Staff Conference, the Marinites will remain at Asilomar for a meeting of the Association of Girl Scout Professional Workers, scheduled for April 28 and 29.

Linda Hart Bride Of Gary F. Hall

In a recent 8 o'clock ceremony at San Anselmo's First Presbyterian Church, Linda Jill Hart of San Anselmo became the bride of Gary Frandsen Hall of Fairfax.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Hart of San Anselmo. Mrs. Arthur M. Hall of Fairfax and the late Mr. Hall are parents of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a white lace ankle length gown fashioned with V neckline, fitted bodice and tapered lace sleeves. Her veil of illusion was held by a coronet of lace and seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white roses, orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. David H. Madsen of San Rafael, as matron of honor for her sister, wore a gown of yellow chiffon over taffeta with matching veil coronet. She carried a bouquet of autumn roses.

The bride's younger sister, Sally Jane Hart, was flower girl. She wore a pink nylon dress with white lace hat with pink streamers. She had a basket of pink rosebuds.

Arthur M. Hall Jr. of San Francisco was best man for his brother and another brother, Robert G. Hall, also of San Francisco, and Cyril Denning were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hart wore a turquoise linen sheath with bone accessories and an orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom chose a frock of moss green silk with matching accessories. Her flowers were orchids.

The new Mrs. Hall was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and is employed with the Pacific Telephone in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Claude G. Hart of San Francisco and David J. Haile and the late Mrs. Haile of Santa Cruz are her grandparents.

The bridegroom was also graduated from Drake and is in his sophomore year at the University of California in Berkeley. Mrs. Juel Nissum of San Rafael and Mrs. Henrietta Hall of San Francisco are his grandmothers.

Cowboy To Make Appearance At Sausalito P-TA Carnival

Pony rides, puppet shows, prizes and a genuine TV cowboy will all create a colorful, festive atmosphere at Sausalito Central-Bayside P-TA's Spring Carnival, to be held on Saturday, May 20, on the lower terrace of Central School, 420 Litho St., Sausalito. The hours are from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The aim is fun for everyone, according to P-TA president, Mrs. William Austin, Mrs Jackson S. Perry, chairman, and Mrs. Jacques Neuville, co-ordinator, who have planned a wide variety of attractions to insure just that.

The overall plan, distinctive booths, a circular dining pavilion, and pony ring, was designed by L. Stuart Linton and will be executed by work parties of fathers, including William Austin, Frank Bosl, Othell Mallouf, Noel Martin and Norman Murdoch. The structures will be surmounted by gay pennants and paper fish, and will consist of knockdown framework and large panels painted in brilliant nature colors, which can be stored and used for future occasions.

M/Sgt. W. F. Collie has helped arrange intriguing games of fun and skill. Each classroom is in charge of one of 16 booths. The attractions, and their chairmen, are: Ape call, Mmes. L. Stuart Linton and David Stanley; penny toss, Mmes. Donald Duncan and Jacques Neuville; puppet show, Mmes. Craig Sharpe and L. S. Balliett; ring the coke bottle, Mmes. Robert Goshen and Karl Treffinger; guess your weight, Mmes. John Chesney Jr. and Este Yates; keg game, Mmes Edward Rogers and Owen Winstead; cadet shooting gallery, Mmes. Hal Mays and Edgar Ross; space game, Mmes. Max Robertson and James Phipps; baseball throw, Mrs. E. Burmester; goldfish, Mrs. Anthony Madeiros; tic-tac-toe, Mmes. Richard E. Cruikshank and Andrew Kozak; balloons and pennants, Mmes. T. Hall and Melvin Wax; white elephants, Mmes. K. E. Elkington and C. A. Brown.

Proceeds from the fund-raising event will be used to buy books for the new school libraries at Bayside and Central Schools.

High Officers Visit Job's Daughters

Ths most important night of the year for Marin County Job's Daughters was the recent official visit of Mrs. Catherine Ford, grand guardian of the state of California, and her associate grand guardian, Milton I. Dawson, to Bethels No. 48, San Rafael; No. 119, Mill Valley, and No. 246, Larkspur, of the International Order of Job's Daughters.

Bethel daughters, parents and distinguished guests gathered in the San Rafael Masonic Temple before meeting time to enjoy renewing acquaintances and sharing a dinner. Hostesses were Mesdames Carlton Schwarz, Peter Morbello and Dorothy Morrison and a committee of girls and mothers. Table decorations and favors carried out the theme of "Redwood Empire," with yellow roses and white marguerites representing the grand guardian's official colors. Adding to the festivities was a surprise birthday cake and song for Mrs. Angie Goulder, deputy grand guardian.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford, who are past guardian and past associate guardian of Bethel No. 125, Los Angeles, traveled from that city to observe the ritualistic work of the three groups. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson are Vallejo residents, where he is past associate guardian of Bethel No. 180. During the meeting, the ceremony of initiation was bestowed upon the following: Allison Lynch and Janice Ahern, Bethel No. 48; Valerie McGowan and Lynda Benson, No. 119, and Sue Edgar and Penelope Vickery of Bethel No. 246. Presiding in turn were honored queens Carol Long, Dorothy Wilson and Dawn Urbais of Nos. 119, 48 and 246

Escorts and honors were given a number of distinguished guests, among whom were past honored queens Helen Wilson, No. 48; Gail Partmann, No. 246; Lloydine Burris, No. 119, and Mrs. Grace Basin, No. 4, Kansas. Mrs. Ford then introduced her grand officers present, all of whom received wood rose corsages for the occasion. They were Mesdames Olive Zameroni, grand librarian, and Gladys Gillette, Frances Larroche, Mary Emma Salmon and Miss Betty Klotz, deputy grand guardians.

Sausalito Junior Dance Set Friday

The popular Junior dances sponsored by the Sausalito Woman's Club will be held on Friday evening, April 28, at the clubhouse.

Mrs. J. E. Connors Jr., chairman for the monthly events, has planned a "Mad Hatters'" party for the seventh and eighth graders with prizes to be awarded for the best hats.

Assisting the chairman are Mesdames Frederic Palmer III, refreshments, and Jack Woods, decorations. Host and hostess for the seventh grade will be Dale Harris and Linda Erickson and for the eighth grade, Kevin Hicks and Sorell Scull.

High Officers Visit Job's Daughters

Ths most important night of the year for Marin County Job's Daughters was the recent official visit of Mrs. Catherine Ford, grand guardian of the state of California, and her associate grand guardian, Milton I. Dawson, to Bethels No. 48, San Rafael; No. 119, Mill Valley, and No. 246, Larkspur, of the International Order of Job's Daughters.

Bethel daughters, parents and distinguished guests gathered in the San Rafael Masonic Temple before meeting time to enjoy renewing acquaintances and sharing a dinner. Hostesses were Mesdames Carlton Schwarz, Peter Morbello and Dorothy Morrison and a committee of girls and mothers. Table decorations and favors carried out the theme of "Redwood Empire," with yellow roses and white marguerites representing the grand guardian's official colors. Adding to the festivities was a surprise birthday cake and song for Mrs. Angie Goulder, deputy grand guardian.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford, who are past guardian and past associate guardian of Bethel No. 125, Los Angeles, traveled from that city to observe the ritualistic work of the three groups. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson are Vallejo residents, where he is past associate guardian of Bethel No. 180. During the meeting, the ceremony of initiation was bestowed upon the following: Allison Lynch and Janice Ahern, Bethel No. 48; Valerie McGowan and Lynda Benson, No. 119, and Sue Edgar and Penelope Vickery of Bethel No. 246. Presiding in turn were honored queens Carol Long, Dorothy Wilson and Dawn Urbais of Nos. 119, 48 and 246

Escorts and honors were given a number of distinguished guests, among whom were past honored queens Helen Wilson, No. 48; Gail Partmann, No. 246; Lloydine Burris, No. 119, and Mrs. Grace Basin, No. 4, Kansas. Mrs. Ford then introduced her grand officers present, all of whom received wood rose corsages for the occasion. They were Mesdames Olive Zameroni, grand librarian, and Gladys Gillette, Frances Larroche, Mary Emma Salmon and Miss Betty Klotz, deputy grand guardians.

Sausalito Junior Dance Set Friday

The popular Junior dances sponsored by the Sausalito Woman's Club will be held on Friday evening, April 28, at the clubhouse.

Mrs. J. E. Connors Jr., chairman for the monthly events, has planned a "Mad Hatters'" party for the seventh and eighth graders with prizes to be awarded for the best hats.

Assisting the chairman are Mesdames Frederic Palmer III, refreshments, and Jack Woods, decorations. Host and hostess for the seventh grade will be Dale Harris and Linda Erickson and for the eighth grade, Kevin Hicks and Sorell Scull.

PY Chapter Has Elected New Staff

Mrs. Ben Perkins of Tiburon was elected president of Chapter PY, P.E.O. Sisterhood, succeeding Mrs. C. A. Coy.

In her first official act, the new president honored Mrs. E. P. Johnson with a pin denoting her 50-year membership in P. E.O., a floral tribute and a party following the regular meeting. Although Chapter PY was organized in 1959 with Mrs. Johnson a charter member, she was initiated in 1911 in Portland, Ore. The honoree was also in the charter group when Chapter MV, Oakland, was formed in 1947.

Other officers installed were Mrs. C. M. Ingham, Terra Linda, vice president; Mrs. Donald Lingruen, Terra Linda, recording secretary; Mrs. A. J. Sanders, San Rafael, corresponding secretary; Mrs. R. A. Ashby, Kentfield, treasurer; Mrs. Hermine Ham, Fairfax, chaplain; Mrs. R. A. Blaustein, Mill Valley, guard.

Two new members were welcomed by dimit. They are Mrs. Dale B. Frady, San Quentin, from San Luis Obispo, Calif., and Mrs. Richard G. Reese, Mill Valley, from Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

Mrs. A. H. Horrall, San Anselmo, will serve the chapter as delegate to the California State P.E.O. convention being held in San Mateo, May 2, 3, 4, with the honored 50-year member, Mrs. Johnson, as her alternate.

The next meeting will be held tomorrow at the home of Mrs. V. B. Bonette, 12 Barn Road, Mill Valley.

Star Of Sea Trek

Star of the Sea Institute YLI is arranging an all-day trip to Lake Tahoe for members on Saturday, April 29. Transportation will be by bus and interested members are asked to contact Mrs. Leo Quadros of Sausalito.

At the regular meeting tonight, Mrs. Lee Pieraccini will be chairman.

'An Aria Of Spring' View Show Theme

Arias from the forthcoming series of Spring Opera will add the appropriate musical accompaniment to the elegant custom fashions of Marin's own John Cavin promenaded by Mrs. William Barnes, Mrs. William Donohoe, Mrs. John Bellamy Jr. and Jane Mapes.

One of San Francisco's "first ladies," Mrs. Leon Cuenin, whose dedicated enthusiasm for Spring Opera has made it an actuality, will be welcomed as the special guest-with-a-view-point.

Joining Mrs. Cuenin will be Mrs. Richard Woods, president of the San Francisco Sponsors who are presenting the opening night of Spring Opera as a benefit for the Spring Opera Fund and prominent civic and social leaders Mrs. Kurt Adler, Mrs. William Wood Adams and Mrs. Leon Ericson.

Spring Opera which begins May 2 at the War Memorial Opera House is a musical boon to opera lovers throughout the Bay Area offering opera at popular prices and starring fresh, young brilliant artists in the three week series including La Traviata, Carmen, Romeo and Juliet, etc.

A boon to Marin and to fashionable, discriminating women is the new John Cavin, Ltd. in Sausalito, where Mr. Cavin may create a custom original as well as manufacture select fashions for specialty shops throughout the country.

Spring Opera and John Cavin combine delightfully in "An Aria of Spring" on Thursdays with reservations for "Fashions With a View" made by calling the Ondine in Sausalito.

Masterpoint Winners Announced

The Thursday Afternoon Duplicate Bridge Club held its April master point and junior events at the San Rafael Improvement Club last week.

Three teams who were "new-to-duplicate" just a short time ago took honors in the East-West field. Mrs. Harry Fink and Mrs. Victor Herm, Greenbrae, first; Mrs. S. E. Biagi and Mrs. Bernard Keating, San Rafael, second; Mrs. S. D. Ulrich and Mrs. Sydney Geiger, San Rafael tied Mrs. Mary Ginella of San Francisco and James Carbaugh, Fairfax for third and fourth place.

North - South, Mrs. Claire Cooke, San Anselmo, and Mrs. Joseph Strittmatter, Belvedere, first; Mrs. Oscar Lebeck, Tiburon and Mrs. Resi Baerwald, Greenbrae, second; Mrs. Florence Perrine, Mill Valley and Mrs. Oliver Sollom, Belvedere, third.

Tournament B winners were Mrs. F. E. Lechner and Mrs. Joan Nelson of San Rafael. Mrs. Dorothy Snyker and Mrs. Genevieve Longley of Larkspur were second.

The regular junior and major games are scheduled for Thursday, April 27, at 12:30. All bridge players are welcome to participate in these popular games.

Young Singer Entertains Musical Club

The young bass-baritone, Horace A. Guittard Jr., presented a varied program at Thursday Musical Club's meeting last week at the Gus Niederholzers' home in Kentfield. His voice has mellow richness and his tones are clear, and the singer has great volume for one so young. First numbers on the program were "Vergin, Tutto Amor," by Durante, and "Il Mio Bel Foco," by Marcello; Pergolessi's "Nina" and Verdi's "Attila." Compositions of Wagner and Gounod followed, and the program concluded with two Barber numbers, "I Hear an Army," and "Sure In This Storming Night," and Mozart's "Deh Vieni Alla Finestra."

The singer and his piano accompanist, David Williams, were introduced by Mrs. Cloyd Kimball, program chairman. Mrs. Paul Daly, vice president, greeted members and guests.

Following the concert, tea was served with Mesdames Carlos Freitas and Alfred Kuehl pouring at a table centered by a silver epergne filled with red roses. On the tea committee were Mesdames Carlo Caletti, Dudley Miller, Hoeter Nelson, George Leftwich and Arthur Feidler.

Family Fun For Dominican Outing

The invitations recently received by the students, parents and alumnae of Dominican Convent present an itinerary for family fun, and the proposed trip is a "Landwarming" at the recently purchased property in Sleepy Hollow.

This site is to be the Second Century campus for both the Upper and Lower Schools. All the Dominican "family," as well as the new neighbors of the Convent in Sleepy Hollow, are eagerly anticipating the Sunday afternoon affair of May 7. General chairman is Mrs. Desmond Mactavish of San Rafael and acting as co-chairman is Mrs. Joseph C. Hickingbotham Jr., also of San Rafael. The Upper School chairman is Mrs. Rowland A. Chapman and in charge of the Lower School is Mrs. Arthurd C. Latno Jr.

Registration will begin at 11 a.m. and the travelogue of fun begins at 11:30, when the Lower School fathers compete at volleyball. Luncheon, which includes chicken salad, roll and dessert, will be served from 12:30 until 3 p.m. At 1 o'clock there will be entertainment and the "Look-Alike Contest" between the students and parents. At 1:30 there will be a softball game and the participants will be the Upper School fathers, with Mr. Robert Lashly doing the umpire duties, and on the sidelines will be the mothers, daughters and alumnae leading the cheers.

One of the highlights of the day will begin at 3 o'clock when students from both the Upper and Lower Schools will present a horse show. Throughout the afternoon, guests will be able to take a jeep tour of the lovely tree-studded property and see exactly what comprises the new campus.

And for the children, there will be a pony ride concession, which is always so thrilling to little ones. The Lower School is responsible for all the concessions, which include booths for sandwiches, milk, soft drinks, cotton candy, ice cream and balloons.

Reservations chairman, Mrs. J. Harold Dollar of 36 N. Ridgewood Rd., Kentfield, has announced that upon receipts of reservation a ticket will be promptly mailed. Reservations, which close May 2, must be presented at the gate and there will be no admission without one. Pre-schoolers do not need a reservation, as their luncheon may be purchased at the concession booths.

Court St. Raphael Plans 'Family Portraits' Show

Sons and daughters will join their mothers when they "tred the boards" at Court St. Raphael, Catholic Daughters' style show "Family Portraits" to be held at St. Raphael's Hall at 8 p.m. on May 5.

Fashions will be featured for mother, little boys and girls and teenagers.

Mrs. Alex Bovee has announced the following models: Mesdames Paul Nederman Jr., Henry Jamison, Ray Schmidt, Carl Zimmerman, William Muzinish, William Webb, James Bradley and George Ballantine.

Indiana Visitors In Hiller Home

Mrs. Larry Yeager and children, Michael and Lori of Muncie, Ind., are returning home this week after a three weeks' stay at the home of her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hiller of Greenbrae. In six weeks the Hillers will leave for Indiana to attend the summer wedding of her brother, Martin Zanger.

Rainbow Sewing Club

Rainbow Sewing Club will hold its regular meeting Friday, April 28, at 1 p.m. at the IOOF Temple, San Rafael. Mrs. James W. Rowe, president of the club, invites all Rebekahs to attend. Mrs. Gordon Dixon will be hostess.

Registration Dates Set For Ross Summer Activities Program

Registration dates for the 96 Ross Summer Activities Program have been set for May 2-3 at Ross School. Children may be registered on the morning of both days from 8:30 until 9:15.

The program begins June 26 and continues until July 28. Eligible to register for 11 different courses are all children residing in the Ross School District who will be first graders through high school freshmen for the 1961-62 school year. The announcement was made by Mrs. Carol J. Neumeier, director.

Registration will be supervised by Mrs. Charles Doyle, assisted by other members of this year's summer activities committee: Mesdames Milton Gabbs, Roger Hooper, Clarence Amonette, Ross Turney, William Niccolls and James Reed.

In the 1960 program, 497 enrollments were made, and it is anticipated that this year's program will enroll a similar number, Mrs. Neumeier indicated.

A brochure containing a schedule of classes and a description of courses will be mailed to parents this week, prior to registration.

Among the courses being introduced for the first time are nature study for younger children and photography for older children.

Another new feature of the Ross program is the initiation of a basic sewing course, augmenting dressmaking which will be open to girls in grades six to nine.

Three classes in typing will be given daily. Students in grades six through nine may take the five-week course.

A special course incorporating story tell, art, folk dancing, and music will be given in two sections, one for children in the first and second grades, another for those in grades three through five.

The program, formulated by the Summer Activities Committee under the auspices of the Ross P-TA, and approved by the Ross School Board, is operating for the third year.

A staff of teachers and instructional aides is being assembled, the director said.

Cook P-TA Luncheon

Isabel Cook School Parent-Teacher Assn. will have a pot-luck salad and dessert luncheon for all the mothers of the school children on Thursday, April 27 at 1 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Registration Dates Set For Ross Summer Activities Program

Registration dates for the 96 Ross Summer Activities Program have been set for May 2-3 at Ross School. Children may be registered on the morning of both days from 8:30 until 9:15.

The program begins June 26 and continues until July 28. Eligible to register for 11 different courses are all children residing in the Ross School District who will be first graders through high school freshmen for the 1961-62 school year. The announcement was made by Mrs. Carol J. Neumeier, director.

Registration will be supervised by Mrs. Charles Doyle, assisted by other members of this year's summer activities committee: Mesdames Milton Gabbs, Roger Hooper, Clarence Amonette, Ross Turney, William Niccolls and James Reed.

In the 1960 program, 497 enrollments were made, and it is anticipated that this year's program will enroll a similar number, Mrs. Neumeier indicated.

A brochure containing a schedule of classes and a description of courses will be mailed to parents this week, prior to registration.

Among the courses being introduced for the first time are nature study for younger children and photography for older children.

Another new feature of the Ross program is the initiation of a basic sewing course, augmenting dressmaking which will be open to girls in grades six to nine.

Swimming will be held for advanced, intermediate and beginning pupils. Two sessions of junior life-saving, following Red Cross standards, are scheduled.

A two-week cooking course for older girls is slated for July 10-July 21.

Three classes in typing will be given daily. Students in grades six through nine may take the five-week course.

A special course incorporating story tell, art, folk dancing, and music will be given in two sections, one for children in the first and second grades, another for those in grades three through five.

The program, formulated by the Summer Activities Committee under the auspices of the Ross P-TA, and approved by the Ross School Board, is operating for the third year.

A staff of teachers and instructional aides is being assembled, the director said.

Cook P-TA Luncheon

Isabel Cook School Parent-Teacher Assn. will have a pot-luck salad and dessert luncheon for all the mothers of the school children on Thursday, April 27 at 1 p.m. in the school auditorium.

SLIM + BULK FOODS = SENSIBLE DIETING

Only 400 calories in a whole quart of SLIM! Yet it's high in protein and supplies the recommended minimum daily needs of 9 out of 10 basic vitamins and minerals. Delicious to drink and leaves no cloying after taste.

A complete liquid diet can cause unpleasant... even harmful ... health problems. Plan your weight control around a quart of SLIM per day plus meats, fruits, vegetables and other bulk foods medical authorities recommend for sensible dieting.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

Guidance Counselor

It Doesn't Pay To Lose Your Temper In Handling Teen-Agers

Here's an example. Your daughter is due home at 11 p.m. She turns up past midnight. You are boiling. You yell, and say things you don't mean. She yells back. Then she bursts into tears and runs to her room.

Nothing unusual about that, is there? But nothing has been resolved. She's touchy for days, and so are you.

But put yourself in her place. Remember how you felt in your teens when your folks yelled at you? Your girl feels the same way about you. Remember how you vowed you'd never treat your children the way your folks were treating you? She's making the same vows now.

When you feel your gorge rising, relax. It won't be easy, but you can try. Make a point of listening to the offender's explanations. Sometimes they have good reasons for doing silly things. At least they deserve a hearing.

Try to give your teen-agers as much freedom as possible. Your fights are over the restrictions you place on them. They feel grown up, and think you treat them like babies. If you give them freedom as fast as they demonstrate responsibility, they'll try to be good. They'll grow up quickly. The parents who have the most trouble with their kids are the ones who keep 'em tied to their apron strings.

Don't ever slap your teen-agers, nor use a whip. Physical violence multiplies all your problems. Remember your youngsters are almost grown. The end of your responsibility for them is in sight.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Our girl is 2½. She started stuttering a week ago. Is this serious?"

(A) Probably not. All children go through brief periods of stuttering. Try to ignore it completely. Her speech should improve soon.

3-R School To Be Built In Santa Rosa

Construction will begin early next month on a 12-classroom building for a Three-R School in Santa Rosa.

James W. Kirchanski, director and founder, said the building, costing about $100,000 will be ready for occupancy by the Fall term starting in September.

Three-R, first established in San Rafael, now operates also in Calistoga. The new school will be co-educational, have grades from primary through eighth, and follow the traditional educational pattern followed by the other two schools, Kirchanski said.

Enrollment will be limited to 10 per class in the primary grades and 15 in the upper elementary grades. The school will offer strictly academic courses with emphasis on phonics in the teaching of reading, Kirchanski said.

Both Punxsutawney, Pa., and Sun Prairie, Wis., claim to be the official residence of the ground hog.

MARIN COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, until 2:00 P.M. on May 9, 1961, for:

Resurfacing of portion of roads: NOVATO BLVD., from Sutro Avenue west approximately 2.2 miles; LAUREL GROVE AVENUE from Sir Francis Drake to Ross City Limits; BON AIR ROAD from Larkspur City Limits northerly to within 160 feet of Via Hidalgo; PANORAMIC HIGHWAY from intersection with Muir Woods Road northerly approximately 3 miles; REED BOULEVARD from Belvedere Drive easterly to Inez Place; RICHARDSON DRIVE from Reed Boulevard to Ricardo Lane; FLAMINGO ROAD from State Highway No. 1 to Marin Avenue; and ROBIN ROAD from Flamingo Road to Ross Road.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, 1711 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, California.

Plans, Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) (cash or check made payable to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin) to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten (10) per cent of the bid. Guaranties shall be in the form of a certified or Cashier's check or a Bidder's bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guaranties not so retained by the County shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposal shall be filed with George S. Jones, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Court House, San Rafael, California.

Said Proposals will be opened and read by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors at 11:00 A.M. on the day specified above for receiving bids, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard. The Clerk will read only the total amount bid and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub totals and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Director of Public Works to which they will be removed for this purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

Labor

In accordance with the provisions of the Labor Code, the Board of Supervisors has determined that the general prevailing rate of wages applicable to the work to be done, which shall be the minimum rates paid on this project, are as follows:

3.325	Laborers Group II: Asphalt Shoveler, etc.
3.225	Laborers Group III: Flagmen, Cleanup, etc.

For positions not listed below, the minimum rate paid for skilled, intermediate or unskilled labor shall be not less than minimum wage per hour as required and shall conform to the particular craft or classification of workmen employed on the project.

Attention is directed to the correlation of the specifications with the Standard Specifications of the State of California, Department of Public Works, Division of Highways, dated January, 1960, as to materials, methods and workmanship.

The contractor shall perform with his own organization and workmen under his immediate superintendence work of a value of not less than fifty per cent (50%) of the value of all work embraced in the contract as required by the specifications for this project.

The contractor whose bid is accepted shall furnish the following bonds to the County (at no expense to the County), executed by a responsible surety acceptable to the County in the prescribed form:

(a) Faithful performance bond
(b) Labor and Materials bond

The Fairthful Performance bond shall be in an amount equal to one hundred per cent (100%) of the total amount bid by the contractor in his proposal.

The labor and materials bond shall be in an amount equal to fifty per cent (50%) of the total amount bid by the contractor in his proposal.

Time Limit

The contractor shall commence work on or before the tenth (10) day following the date of written notification of approval of the contract by the Director of Public Works and shall complete all work on the project within twenty-five (25) working days counting from and including the said tenth (10) day.

It Doesn't Pay To Lose Your Temper In Handling Teen-Agers

Ever lose your temper with your teen-agers? Of course. You can't live with teen-agers and not fight occasionally.

Here's an example. Your daughter is due home at 11 p.m. She turns up past midnight. You are boiling. You yell, and say things you don't mean. She yells back. Then she bursts into tears and runs to her room.

Nothing unusual about that, is there? But nothing has been resolved. She's touchy for days, and so are you.

But put yourself in her place. Remember how you felt in your teens when your folks yelled at you? Your girl feels the same way about you. Remember how you vowed you'd never treat your children the way your folks were treating you? She's making the same vows now.

When you feel your gorge rising, relax. It won't be easy, but you can try. Make a point of listening to the offender's explanations. Sometimes they have good reasons for doing silly things. At least they deserve a hearing.

Try to give your teen-agers as much freedom as possible. Your fights are over the restrictions you place on them. They feel grown up, and think you treat them like babies. If you give them freedom as fast as they demonstrate responsibility, they'll try to be good. They'll grow up quickly. The parents who have the most trouble with their kids are the ones who keep 'em tied to their apron strings.

Don't ever slap your teen-agers, nor use a whip. Physical violence multiplies all your problems. Remember your youngsters are almost grown. The end of your responsibility for them is in sight.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Our girl is 2½. She started stuttering a week ago. Is this serious?"

(A) Probably not. All children go through brief periods of stuttering. Try to ignore it completely. Her speech should improve soon.

3-R School To Be Built In Santa Rosa

Construction will begin early next month on a 12-classroom building for a Three-R School in Santa Rosa.

James W. Kirchanski, director and founder, said the building, costing about $100,000 will be ready for occupancy by the Fall term starting in September.

Three-R, first established in San Rafael, now operates also in Calistoga. The new school will be co-educational, have grades from primary through eighth, and follow the traditional educational pattern followed by the other two schools, Kirchanski said.

Enrollment will be limited to 10 per class in the primary grades and 15 in the upper elementary grades. The school will offer strictly academic courses with emphasis on phonics in the teaching of reading, Kirchanski said.

Both Punxsutawney, Pa., and Sun Prairie, Wis., claim to be the official residence of the ground hog.

MARIN COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marain, State of California, until 2:00 P.M. on May 9, 1961, for:

Resurfacing of portion of roads: NOVATO BLVD., from Sutro Avenue west approximately 2.2 miles; LAUREL GROVE AVENUE from Sir Francis Drake to Ross City Limits; BON AIR ROAD from Larkspur City Limits northerly to within 160 feet of Via Hidalgo; PANORAMIC HIGHWAY from intersection with Muir Woods Road northerly approximately 3 miles; REED BOULEVARD from Belvedere Drive easterly to Inez Place; RICHARDSON DRIVE from Reed Boulevard to Ricardo Lane; FLAMINGO ROAD from State Highway No. 1 to Marin Avenue; and ROBIN ROAD from Flamingo Road to Ross Road.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Request for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, 1711 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, California.

Plans, Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications or other documents included by reference), and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) (cash or check made payable to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin) to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

All bids must be submitted on the Proposal form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten (10) per cent of the bid. Guaranties shall be in the form of a certified or Cashier's check or a Bidder's bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guaranties not so retained by the County shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the contract.

Proposal shall be filed with George S. Jones, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Court House, San Rafael, California.

Said Proposals will be opened and read by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors at 11:00 A.M. on the day specified above for receiving bids, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard. The Clerk will read only the total amount bid and not specific items going to make up said total unless written request for reading of each sub totals and individual items of the bid is requested in writing at the time of the submission of proposals. Bidders will be at liberty to inspect and review bids in the Office of the Director of Public Works to which they will be removed for this purpose of checking after the opening and reading of the totals by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

Labor

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, pursuant to the call of its Directors, a special meeting of the shareholders of the FIRST NATIONAL BANK IN SAN RAFAEL, will be held at its banking house, 1203 Fourth Street, in the City of San Rafael, State of California, on Thursday, the 18th day of May, 1961, at 8:00 o'clock P.M., for the purpose of considering and determining by vote whether an Agreement to Merge the BANK OF SAN RAFAEL and the FIRST NATIONAL BANK IN SAN RAFAEL, the main office of which is located in the City of San Rafael, State of California, into and under the title and charter of, CROCKER-ANGLO NATIONAL BANK, the main office of which is located in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, under the provisions of the laws of the United States, shall be ratified and confirmed, subject to the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D.C.; and for the purpose of voting upon any other matters incidental to the proposed merger.

A copy of the aforesaid Agreement to Merge, executed by a majority or more of the Directors of each of the three banks, is on file at the bank and may be inspected during business hours.

DATED at San Rafael, California April 7, 1961.
WILLIAM P. MURRAY,
President.
No. 412—Apr. 7, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, May 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 18, 1961

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

4646B

On Wednesday, the 26th day of April, 1961 at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M. at 950 Fifth Avenue in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, that being the place of business of the Trustee, PACIFIC COAST TITLE COMPANY OF MARIN, a California corporation, as Trustee, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, in lawful money of the United States, all payable at the time of the sale, the following described property situate in the City of San Anselmo, County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:

PARCEL ONE: LOT H in Block B as shown upon that certain map entitled, "Carrigan Tract San Anselmo amended Map of the subdivision of Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 in Block B", filed in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Marin, State of California, on December 30, 1912 in Book 4 of Maps at page 34, Marin County Records.

PARCEL TWO: BEGINNING at a point on the Southeasterly line of Sais Avenue at the most Northerly corner of Lot 13, in Block B, as shown upon that certain map entitled, "Carrigan Tract, Amended Map No. 2, San Anselmo" filed for record March 29, 1909, in Map Book 3 at page 9, Marin County Records, running thence along said line of Sais Avenue, Southwesterly 23.0 feet to a point; thence leaving said line and running South 43° 53' East 97 feet and North 37° 17' East 21.21 feet to a point on the Northeasterly line of said Lot 13, running thence along the last mentioned line Northwesterly to the point of beginning, BEING a portion of said Lot 13.

Said sale will be made, without covenant or warranty regarding title, possession or encumbrances, to satisfy the obligation secured by and pursuant to the power of sale conferred in that certain Deed of Trust executed by JOSEPH FRANCIS BEDOCK, Jr. and JEAN A. BEDOCK, his wife, as Trustors to PACIFIC COAST TITLE COMPANY OF MARIN, a California corporation, as Trustee, for the benefit and security of ALBERT J. SLEPNOL and FREDA C. SLEPNOL, his wife, as Joint Tenants, dated May 23, 1960 and recorded May 23, 1960 in Liber 1369 of Official Records at page 172, Marin County Records.

If You Are Buying or Selling
DEAL WITH A REALTOR

Your Marin County Real Estate Board is one of the most civic minded, progressive boards in the state. We have lead the other boards in many ways.

The requirements for joining our Marin County Real Estate Board are one of the highest of any board in the bay area. The applicant must prove his qualifications. Better than 95% of all active Real Estate offices in Marin County are members of the Marin County Real Estate Board. There is great pride in being a member because of these high standards. This results in incentive for greater service and loyal adherence to the Code of Ethics subscribed to by all REALTORS.

Our Multiple Listing Service is used by 100% of our members. We have the latest modern equipment for servicing and processing all listings.

What Is a Realtor?

Not every "real estate broker" is a REALTOR. The term "REALTOR" came into being because of the compelling need to identify to the public those real estate men who are pledged to abide by a NATIONAL CODE OF ETHICS—the first code of ethics to be adopted in American by any national business group.

In Marin REALTORS are active members of the Marin County REAL ESTATE BOARD. They are pledged to conduct their business according to the Code of Ethics of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. This Code of Ethics assures you protection in all your real estate transactions. It pays to deal with a Marin REALTOR.

All Marin County Realtors
FEATURE
Multiple Listing Service

The modern method of buying and selling real estate that COSTS NO MORE and GETS FASTER RESULTS!

Thousands of homes have been sold by Marin REALTORS through the efficiency of the Marin County Multiple Listing Service. This modern, cooperative system has conclusively proved to property owners its value as a sales asset.

Unlike "the old days" you do not have to shop around from office to office to list your house. Today you sign one contract, with one Marin REALTOR, and your listing—with photograph and giving complete details—is broadcast from the Real Estate Board office to its entire membership. Automatically the the property you wish to sell is called to the attention of a sales force of more than 500 realty experts. Any Marin REALTOR will MULTIPLE LIST your home. Whether he or a fellow REALTOR sells it only one commission is paid.

If You Are Buying or Selling
DEAL WITH A REALTOR

Your Marin County Real Estate Board is one of the most civic minded, progressive boards in the state. We have lead the other boards in many ways.

The requirements for joining our Marin County Real Estate Board are one of the highest of any board in the bay area. The applicant must prove his qualifications. Better than 95% of all active Real Estate offices in Marin County are members of the Marin County Real Estate Board. There is great pride in being a member because of these high standards. This results in incentive for greater service and loyal adherence to the Code of Ethics subscribed to by all REALTORS.

Our Multiple Listing Service is used by 100% of our members. We have the latest modern equipment for servicing and processing all listings.

What Is a Realtor?

Not every "real estate broker" is a REALTOR. The term "REALTOR" came into being because of the compelling need to identify to the public those real estate men who are pledged to abide by a NATIONAL CODE OF ETHICS—the first code of ethics to be adopted in American by any national business group.

In Marin REALTORS are active members of the Marin County REAL ESTATE BOARD. They are pledged to conduct their business according to the Code of Ethics of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. This Code of Ethics assures you protection in all your real estate transactions. It pays to deal with a Marin REALTOR.

All Marin County Realtors
FEATURE
Multiple Listing Service

The modern method of buying and selling real estate that COSTS NO MORE and GETS FASTER RESULTS!

Thousands of homes have been sold by Marin REALTORS through the efficiency of the Marin County Multiple Listing Service. This modern, cooperative system has conclusively proved to property owners its value as a sales asset.

Unlike "the old days" you do not have to shop around from office to office to list your house. Today you sign one contract, with one Marin REALTOR, and your listing—with photograph and giving complete details—is broadcast from the Real Estate Board office to its entire membership. Automatically the the property you wish to sell is called to the attention of a sales force of more than 500 realty experts. Any Marin REALTOR will MULTIPLE LIST your home. Whether he or a fellow REALTOR sells it only one commission is paid.

'54 BUICK
HARDTOP
$495
If you're looking for a one-owner, well-cared-for little hardtop with low mileage, then this is your answer.

$495
If you're looking for a one-owner, well-cared-for little hardtop with low mileage, then this is your answer.

EXPLORER TO SPEAK—Dr. Lawrence W. Swan, assistant professor of biology at San Francisco State College and one of the conquerors of Mount Everest with Sir Edmund Hilary, will speak at College of Marin at 8 p.m. tomorrow. Dr. Swan will speak on eastern Nepal in the Himalayas, where he conducted a biological expedition for four months. A native of India, Dr. Swan has had four television series on KQED.

Marinite Found Guilty In Drunk Case

Samuel C. Klopstock, 47, of 66 Winship Avenue, Ross, Friday was found guilty of a drunken driving charge in a trial unusual in that the defense called no witness and the defendant did not appear in court.

A jury in the Marin Municipal Court of Judge Leonard A. Thomas deliberated about one hour before returning the verdict against Klopstock, a salesman and one-time star hurdler for Stanford University.

William O. Weissich, former district attorney who defended Klopstock, argued that his client was guilty of being drunk in and about an automobile but no one saw him driving the car.

Sgt. Raymond Velati of San Anselmo police, the arresting officer, said he found Mrs. Klopstock trying to push her husband from behind the steering wheel of the car, stopped against an embankment on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, at about 1:15 a.m. on March 15. Both were drunk, he said. The car was southbound in a northbound lane, with the key in the ignition, Velati testified.

Klopstock had two prior drunken driving convictions, in 1940 in Marin County and 1949 in San Mateo County. A defense motion to strike them from the record was denied by the court.

Tiburon Petitions

The Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council will plan its drive for signatures on incorporation petitions at a meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Belvedere community hall, according to chairman Dick De Berry.

A review of the incorporation proceeding action will be given by Kelly J. Wheeler, incorporation study chairman. The lands use committee, headed by Gilbert B. Darroch, will report on recent meetings.

Oakland Firm Awarded Water District Job

A $219,089.50 contract has been awarded to an Oakland company to install a big Marin Municipal Water District main through San Rafael, it was announced yesterday.

The main, to be completed about mid-July will supply water to the eastern part of the city. The installation job is expected to cause some traffic disruption.

Underground Construction Co. will install welded steel pipe of 16 and 18-inch inside diameter in three locations:

Along Ranchitos Road between North San Pedro Road and Highway 101; between a storage tank near the north end of Linden Lane and the east end of Montecito Road, and from Locksley Lane and Lochinvar Road to San Pedro Road at Oak Road.

Routing of the second project from Linden Lane will be along Magnolia Avenue, Palm Avenue, through Dominican Convent property, along Highland Avenue, Summit Avenue and along Montecito Road.

The third project will go along Locksley Lane, Bayview Drive and along San Pedro Road.

At least one-way traffic is to be maintained during the working day by the contractor and no street will be closed overnight, according to the water district. Water pressure in the areas of the work is not expected to be affected appreciably.

Soldier Assigned

Pvt. Stephen J. Retter, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Retter, 280 Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley, recently was assigned to the Army Engineer Center Regiment at Fort Belvoir, Va.

EXPLORER TO SPEAK—Dr. Lawrence W. Swan, assistant professor of biology at San Francisco State College and one of the conquerors of Mount Everest with Sir Edmund Hilary, will speak at College of Marin at 8 p.m. tomorrow. Dr. Swan will speak on eastern Nepal in the Himalayas, where he conducted a biological expedition for four months. A native of India, Dr. Swan has had four television series on KQED.

Marinite Found Guilty In Drunk Case

Samuel C. Klopstock, 47, of 66 Winship Avenue, Ross, Friday was found guilty of a drunken driving charge in a trial unusual in that the defense called no witness and the defendant did not appear in court.

A jury in the Marin Municipal Court of Judge Leonard A. Thomas deliberated about one hour before returning the verdict against Klopstock, a salesman and one-time star hurdler for Stanford University.

William O. Weissich, former district attorney who defended Klopstock, argued that his client was guilty of being drunk in and about an automobile but no one saw him driving the car.

Sgt. Raymond Velati of San Anselmo police, the arresting officer, said he found Mrs. Klopstock trying to push her husband from behind the steering wheel of the car, stopped against an embankment on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, at about 1:15 a.m. on March 15. Both were drunk, he said. The car was southbound in a northbound lane, with the key in the ignition, Velati testified.

Klopstock had two prior drunken driving convictions, in 1940 in Marin County and 1949 in San Mateo County. A defense motion to strike them from the record was denied by the court.

Tiburon Petitions

The Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council will plan its drive for signatures on incorporation petitions at a meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Belvedere community hall, according to chairman Dick De Berry.

A review of the incorporation proceeding action will be given by Kelly J. Wheeler, incorporation study chairman. The lands use committee, headed by Gilbert B. Darroch, will report on recent meetings.

Oakland Firm Awarded Water District Job

A $219,089.50 contract has been awarded to an Oakland company to install a big Marin Municipal Water District main through San Rafael, it was announced yesterday.

The main, to be completed about mid-July will supply water to the eastern part of the city. The installation job is expected to cause some traffic disruption.

Underground Construction Co. will install welded steel pipe of 16 and 18-inch inside diameter in three locations:

Along Ranchitos Road between North San Pedro Road and Highway 101; between a storage tank near the north end of Linden Lane and the east end of Montecito Road, and from Locksley Lane and Lochinvar Road to San Pedro Road at Oak Road.

Routing of the second project from Linden Lane will be along Magnolia Avenue, Palm Avenue, through Dominican Convent property, along Highland Avenue, Summit Avenue and along Montecito Road.

The third project will go along Locksley Lane, Bayview Drive and along San Pedro Road.

At least one-way traffic is to be maintained during the working day by the contractor and no street will be closed overnight, according to the water district. Water pressure in the areas of the work is not expected to be affected appreciably.

Soldier Assigned

Pvt. Stephen J. Retter, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Retter, 280 Lovell Avenue, Mill Valley, recently was assigned to the Army Engineer Center Regiment at Fort Belvoir, Va.
